TO: C Preston, IRS
FROM: S. Eltinge, taxpayer

The lack of scrutiny over the 501(c)3 status of religious organizations is of great concern to me and millions of others whose tax dollars support, directly and indirectly, the many financial benefits they receive. This has become particularly troublesome when mega wealthy churches literally flaunt their largess at the expense of taxpayers. At the very least I would like to see the IRS step up and fairly apply the same oversight you currently direct toward other nonreligious, tax-exempt organizations
Thank you
