Public Comments for ICR 202403-1506-001

Author Full Name : Suzanne Herman

Received Date : 04/17/2024 11:22 AM

Comments Received :

I live and earn my entire income in Canada, where I have all of my bank accounts. The presumption of guilt by having to provide details of those bank accounts (and any others I may have signing authority over) to the U.S. is unfair and humiliating especially when I already report and file U.S. taxes with the U.S. government.
Also, the reporting threshold is too low and should be indexed to inflation.