Hi Christie,

I hope this is an acceptable way to provide comments. I will keep them as short as I can. :-)

My only real comment is that I think it is inappropriate for churches be given special treatment by any level of government (including the IRS). They should not be exempted from the requirements that all other 501c3's have to follow. Please, just be uniform in your policies. Don't treat churches differently from others.

Thanks.
