From:	batagle@aol.com
To:	Preston Christie A
Subject:	re: Form 990
Date:	Friday, September 11, 2015 4:12:27 PM

Greetings,

Regarding the disclosure requirements that all 501 (c) (3) organizations must comply with, I believe that religious organizations should not be exempted. Privileged treatment for these organizations amounts to government endorsement, an action directly at odds with the Constitution. In the interest of transparency and accountability, the IRS should enforce compliance from churches as it does from any other 501 (c) (3) group.

Respectfully,
Benjamin A. Tagle