					[Accordion continued] Physical Presence Requirements		There is no physical presence requirement (and no requirement to file Form N-470) if you are applying as:  • A currently serving member of the U.S. armed forces or a former service member who separated from service within 6 months of applying for naturalization;  • A former service member who served in an active-duty status in the U.S. armed forces or as a member of the Selected Reserve of the Ready Reserve during a designated period of hostilities;  • The spouse of a U.S. citizen currently residing outside the United States, if your spouse is employed outside the U.S. in a religious vocation or by the U.S. Government, an American institution of research, certain American firms or corporations, or certain public international organizations; or
							• An employee of a U.S. nonprofit organization that principally promotes the interests of the United States outside the United States through the communications media.  Note: Time spent outside the United States in the U.S. armed forces counts as time spent in the United States.
							Note: If you are a U.S. Government employee or contracter outside the United States, you are exempt from the physical presence requirement, if you have an approved Form N-470. You must have had 1 year of uninterrupted physical presence before you filed Form N-470.
							Note: If you are employed in a religious vocation, with an approved Form N-470, your time outside the U.S. counts as time in the United States. You must have 1 year of uninterrupted physical presence in the United States before you file Form N-400.
							Note: Your entire period outside the United States may count as physical presence in the United States if you are engaged in qualifying employment for any portion of the period outside the United States.  Note: Time in American Samoa or Swains Island counts as time in the United States.
					[Accordion]  Good Moral Character		Good Moral Character  Good Moral Character (GMC) means character that measures up to the standards of average citizens of the community in which the applicant resides. In general, an applicant must show that they have been and continue to be a person of GMC during the required period (for example, 5 years if you are
					[Accordion]		applying based on 5 years as a lawful permanent resident or 3 years if you are applying as the spouse of a U.S. citizen) prior to filing and up to the time of the Oath of Allegiance.  Naturalization Testing and Exceptions  Almost all applicants for naturalization must take a naturalization test to demonstrate that they are able to read, write, speak, and understand English, and that they have a basic knowledge of civics (U.S. history and government). You do not have to take the English reading, writing, speaking and
					Naturalization Testing and Exceptions		understanding test, and you can take the civics test in a language of your choice if at the time you file your application:  • You are 50 years of age or older and have been a lawful permanent resident for at least 20 years; or  • You are age 55 years of age or older and have been a lawful permanent resident for at least 15 years.
							If you are 65 years of age or older and have been a lawful permanent resident for at least 20 years, you may take a simplified version of the civics test. Learn more about the civics test here.
							You may be eligible for an exception to the English language test or civics test or both if you have a physical or developmental disability or mental impairment that has lasted, or is expected to last, 12 months or more. If you are requesting a medical exception to the English language and civics tests, answer "Yes" to the question in the Requests for Accommodations page in the About You section. You will also need to submit a completed Form N-648, Medical Certification for Disability Exceptions, with your Form N-400. You can find and download Form N-648 here.
							Note: If you need an interpreter and you qualify for an exception to the English part of the test, you must bring an interpreter to the interview.
					[Accordion]		Legal Guardian, Surrogate, or Designated Representative  If you cannot undergo any part of the naturalization process because of a physical or developmental disability or mental impairment, you may have a legal guardian, a surrogate, or an eligible designated representative complete the naturalization process for you.  Oath of Allegiance
					Oath of Allegiance		If USCIS approves your application, you must take the Oath of Allegiance to become a U.S. citizen. In limited cases, you may take a modified Oath.  Modification to the Oath
							You may request a modification to portions of the Oath requiring you to bear arms on behalf of the United States or perform noncombatant service in the U.S. armed forces if you have a religious or conscientious objection to those portions. You may not request a modification to the portion of the Oath requiring you to perform work of national importance under civilian direction. You may provide, but we do not require, an attestation from an organization, a witness statement, or any other evidence to support your objection to bear arms or perform noncombatant service.  Affirmation
							You may request to substitute the words "solemnly affirm" for the words "on oath" and omit "so help me God." You may request this affirmation instead of an Oath for any reason without documentation.  Oath Waiver
			Early Filing				You may receive a waiver of the Oath of Allegiance if you are unable to understand or to communicate an understanding of the meaning of the Meaning of the Oath because of a physical or developmental disability or mental impairment.  Early Filing  If you are applying based on lawful permanent residence for 5 years, you may generally file your application up to 90 days before meeting the required 5-year period of continuous residence as a lawful permanent resident. If you are applying based on your marriage to a U.S. citizen, you may generally file up to 90 days before meeting the required 3-year period of continuous residence as a lawful permanent resident.
							However, applicants filing up to 90 days before meeting the continuous residence requirement must still meet all other requirements for naturalization at the time of filing Form N-400. If these requirements are not met at the 90-day period, the applicant must wait to file until the requirement is met, otherwise, the application will be rejected or denied. For example:  • If you are applying under Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) section 319(a) as the spouse of a U.S. citizen, you must have been married to a U.S. citizen for at least 3 years at the time you file Form N-400; or
							• If you request an exception to the English testing requirements, you must meet the requirements for the exception (age and years as a lawful permanent resident) when you file Form N-400. Use the USCIS Early Filing Calculator to ensure that you file your Form N-400 no earlier than 90 days before you complete the required period.
							Note: We will reject your application if you submit it too early.
		Fee				If you are under 75 years old, the application fee is $725. This includes the $640 standard fee plus an $85 biometrics service fee. If you are 75 years or older, there is no biometrics fee, so the application fee is $640.	The filing fee is $640.  A biometric services fee of $85 is also required, regardless of where the applicant lives and whether the applicant is filing from inside or outside the United States. The total payment is $725.
						There is no filing fee if you are a member or veteran of any branch of the U.S. Armed Forces filing on you	r Note: Current and former members of the U.S. armed forces filing under INA section 328 or 329 are not required to pay the filing fee or the biometric services fee.
