fed reg doc e7 7811 attention linda glatz and todd stevenson consumer product safety commission

re consumer focus groups

i have previously written in opposing this plan. did you purposefully lose my remarks because you want to promote this plan and i did not think it was a sound use of taxpayer dollars.

i am again writing in to say that this plan of focus groups is not needed. we have endless amounts of consumer information on this already.

what is going on with our government agencies losing the publics response to federal register notices - gpo can you investigate please?
