

Waterman, Robert - WHD

From: Barbara Psinakis <bpsinakis@chsfla.com>
Sent: Tuesday, September 29, 2015 2:52 PM
To: WHDPRAComments
Subject: Revision comments

Helen Applewhaite,

In reviewing the documents and the explanations for the changes to WH-226, I feel that reducing the number of prevailing wage surveys and times studies is a benefit to the employer which will in fact decrease some time. The changes to form WH-226A, increasing the data collection from 4 to 14 categories will increase work for the employer greatly.

*Barbara Psinakis
Director of Adult Services
Marian Center School & Services Inc.*