Instructions for Form 1040NR-EZ

U.S. Income Tax Return for Certain Nonresident Aliens With No Dependents

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Can I Use Form 1040NR-EZ?

You can use Form 1040NR-EZ instead of Form 1040NR if all items in this checklist apply.

You do not claim any dependents.
You cannot be claimed as a dependent on another person's U.S. tax return (such as your parent's return).
Your only U.S. source income was from wages, salaries, tips, refunds of state and local income taxes, scholarship or fellowship grants, and nontaxable interest or dividends.  Note. If you had taxable interest or dividend income, you must use Form 1040NR instead of Form 1040NR-EZ.
Your taxable income (line 14 of Form 1040NR-EZ) is less than $100,000.
The only exclusion you can take is the exclusion for scholarship and fellowship grants, and the only adjustment to income you can take is the student loan interest deduction.
You do not claim any tax credits.
If you were married, you do not claim an exemption for your spouse.
The only itemized deduction you can claim is for state and local income taxes.  Note. Residents of India who were students or business apprentices may be able to take the standard deduction instead of the itemized deduction for state and local income taxes. See the instructions for line 11, later.
This is not an "expatriation" return. See the Instructions for Form 1040NR for more information.
The only taxes you owe are: a. The tax from the Tax Table, later, or b. Unreported social security and Medicare tax from Forms 4137 or 8919.
You do not claim a credit for excess social security and tier 1 RRTA tax withheld.

General Instructions

What's New

Filing status for same-sex married couples. If you have a same-sex spouse whom you legally married in a state (or foreign country) that recognizes same-sex marriage, you generally must use the married filing status on your 2013 return, even if you and your spouse now live in a state (or foreign country) that does not recognize same-sex marriage. See Filing Status, later.

Limit on itemized deductions. You may not be able to deduct all of your itemized deductions if your adjusted gross income is more than $150,000. See the instructions for line 11.

Personal exemption amount increased for certain taxpayers. Your personal exemption amount is increased to $3,900. But the amount may be reduced if your adjusted gross income is more than $150,000. See the instructions for line 13.

Individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). ITINs issued after 2012 are valid for only 5 years. See Identifying Number, later.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form 1040NR-EZ and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/ form1040nrez

Other Reporting Requirements

You also may have to file other forms, including the following:

- Form 8833, Treaty-Based Return Position Disclosure Under Section 6114 or 7701(b).
- Form 8840, Closer Connection Exception Statement for Aliens.
- Form 8843, Statement for Exempt Individuals and Individuals With a Medical Condition.

• Form 8938, Statement of Specified Foreign Financial Assets.

If you have to file one or more of the forms listed earlier, you CAUTION may not be able to file Form 1040NR-EZ. For more information, and to see if you must file one of these forms, see chapter 1 of Pub. 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens.

Additional Information

If you need more information, our free publications may help you. Pub. 519 will be the most important, but the following publications also may help.

Pub. 597 Information on the United States—Canada Income Tax Treaty

Pub. 901 U.S. Tax Treaties

Pub. 910 IRS Guide to Free Tax Services (includes a list of all publications)

These free publications and the forms and schedules you will need are available from the Internal Revenue Service. You can download them at IRS.gov . Also see How to Get Tax Help, later, for other ways to get them (as well as information on receiving IRS assistance in completing the forms).

Resident Alien or Nonresident Alien

If you are not a citizen of the United States, specific rules apply to determine if you are a resident alien or a nonresident alien for tax purposes. Generally, you are considered a resident alien if you meet either the green card test or the substantial presence test for 2013. (These tests are explained in Green Card Test next and Substantial Presence Test, later.) Even if you do not meet either of these tests, you may be able to choose to be treated as a U.S. resident for part of 2013. See First-Year Choice in chapter 1 of Pub. 519 for details.

Generally, you are considered a nonresident alien for the year if you are not a U.S. resident under either of these Jan 02, 2014 Cat. No. 21718P tests. However, even if you are a U.S. resident under one of these tests, you still may be considered a nonresident alien if you qualify as a resident of a treaty country within the meaning of an income tax treaty between the United States and that country and elect to be treated as a resident of that country. You can download the complete text of most U.S. tax treaties at IRS.gov. Enter "tax treaties" in the search box at the top of the page. Technical explanations for many of those treaties are also available at that site.

For more details on resident and nonresident status, the tests for residence, and the exceptions to them, see chapter 1 of Pub. 519.

Green Card Test

You are a resident for tax purposes if you were a lawful permanent resident (immigrant) of the United States at any time during 2013 and you took no steps to be treated as a resident of a foreign country under an income tax treaty. (However, see Dual-Status Taxpayers, later.) In most cases you are a lawful permanent resident if the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) (or its predecessor organization, INS) has issued you an alien registration card, also known as a green card.

If you surrender your green card, your status as a resident for tax purposes will change as of the date you surrender your green card if all of the following are true.

- You mail a letter to the USCIS stating your intent to surrender your green card.
- 2. You send this letter by certified mail, return receipt requested (or the foreign equivalent).
- 3. You have proof that the letter was received by the USCIS.

Keep a copy of the letter and the proof that the letter was received.

Until you have proof your letter was received, you remain a CAUTION resident for tax purposes even if the USCIS would not recognize the validity of your green card because it is more than ten years old or because you have been absent from the United States for a period of time.

For more details, including special rules that apply if you give up your green card after holding it in at least 8 of the prior 15 years, see Pub. 519.

Substantial Presence Test

You are considered a U.S. resident if you meet the substantial presence test for 2013. You meet this test if you were physically present in the United States for at least:

- 1. 31 days during 2013, and
- 2. 183 days during the period 2013, 2012, and 2011, using the following chart.

(a) Year	(b) Days of physical presence	(c) Multiplier	(d) Testing days (multiply (b) times (c))
2013		1.000
2012		.333
2011		.167
Total tes (d))	sting days (ad	d column

Generally, you are treated as present in the United States on any day that you are physically present in the country at any time during the day. However, there are exceptions to this rule. In general, do not count the following as days of presence in the United States for the substantial presence test.

- Days you commute to work in the United States from a residence in Canada or Mexico if you regularly commute from Canada or Mexico.
- Days you are in the United States for less than 24 hours when you are in transit between two places outside the United States.
- Days you are in the United States as a crew member of a foreign vessel.
- Days you intend, but are unable, to leave the United States because of a medical condition that arose while you were in the United States.
- Days you are an exempt individual (defined next).

You may need to file Form 8843 to exclude days of CAUTION presence in the United States for the substantial presence test. For more information on the requirements, see Form 8843 in chapter 1 of Pub. 519.

Exempt individual. For these purposes, an exempt individual is generally an individual who is a:

- Foreign government-related individual:
- Teacher or trainee who is temporarily present under a "J" or "Q" visa;
- Student who is temporarily present under an "F," "J," "M," or "Q" visa; or Professional athlete who is temporarily in the United States to compete in a charitable sports event.

Note. Alien individuals with "Q" visas are treated as either students, teachers, or trainees and, as such, are exempt individuals for purposes of the substantial presence test if they otherwise qualify. "Q" visas are issued to aliens participating in certain international cultural exchange programs.

See chapter 1 of Pub. 519 for more details regarding days of presence in the United States for the substantial presence test.

Closer Connection to Foreign Country

Even though you otherwise would meet the substantial presence test, you can be treated as a nonresident alien if you:

- Were present in the United States for fewer than 183 days during 2013,
- Establish that during 2013 you had a tax home in a foreign country, and
- Establish that during 2013 you had a closer connection to one foreign country in which you had a tax home than to the United States unless you had a closer connection to two foreign countries.

See chapter 1 of Pub. 519 for more information.

Closer connection exception for foreign students. If you are a foreign student in the United States, and you have met the substantial presence test, you still may be able to claim you are a nonresident alien. You must meet both of the following requirements.

- 1. You establish that you do not intend to reside permanently in the United States. The facts and circumstances of your situation are considered to determine if you do not intend to reside permanently in the United States. The facts and circumstances include the following.
- a. Whether you have taken any steps to change your U.S. immigration status to lawful permanent resident.
- b. During your stay in the United States, whether you have maintained a closer connection with a foreign country than with the United States.
- 2. You have substantially complied with your visa requirements.

You must file a fully completed Form 8840 with the IRS to claim the closer connection exception. See Form 8840 in chapter 1 of Pub. 519.

You cannot use the closer connection exception to remain a nonresident alien indefinitely.

You must have in mind an estimated departure date from the United States in the near future.

Who Must File

File Form 1040NR-EZ (or Form 1040NR) if you were a nonresident alien engaged in a trade or business in the United States during 2013. You must file even if:

- · You have no income from a trade or business conducted in the United States.
- You have no income from U.S. sources, or
- Your income is exempt from U.S. tax under a tax treaty or any section of the Internal Revenue Code.

Other situations when you must file.

You also must file a return for 2013 if you need to pay social security and Medicare tax on tips you did not report to your employer or on wages you received from an employer who did not withhold these taxes.

Exceptions. You do not need to file Form 1040NR-EZ (or Form 1040NR) if:

- 1. Your only U.S. trade or business was the performance of personal services; and
- a. Your wages were less than $3,900; and
- b. You have no other need to file a return to claim a refund of overwithheld taxes, to satisfy additional withholding at source, or to claim income exempt or partly exempt by treaty; or
- 2. You were a nonresident alien student, teacher, or trainee who was temporarily present in the United States under an "F," "J," "M," or "Q" visa, and you have no income (such as wages, salaries, tips, etc., or scholarship or fellowship grants) that is subject to tax under section 871.

When To File

If you were an employee and received wages subject to U.S. income tax withholding, file Form 1040NR-EZ by April 15, 2014.

If you did not receive wages as an employee subject to U.S. income tax withholding, file Form 1040NR-EZ by June 16, 2014.

If you file after the due date (without extensions), you may have to pay interest and penalties. See Interest and Penalties, later.

Extension of time to file. If you cannot file your return by the due date, file Form 4868 to get an automatic 6-month extension of time to file. You must file Form 4868 by the regular due date of the return.

Note. An automatic 6-month extension of time to file does not extend the time to pay your tax. If you do not pay your tax by the original due date of your return, you will owe interest on the unpaid tax and may owe penalties. See Form 4868.

Where To File

Mail Form 1040NR-EZ to:

Department of the Treasury Internal Revenue Service Austin, TX 73301-0215 U.S.A.

If enclosing a payment, mail Form 1040NR-EZ to:

> Internal Revenue Service P.O. Box 1303 Charlotte, NC 28201-1303 U.S.A.

Private Delivery Services

You can use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the "timely mailing as timely filing/ paying" rule for tax returns and payments. These private delivery services include only the following.

- DHL Express (DHL): DHL Same Day Service.
- Federal Express (FedEx): FedEx Priority Overnight, FedEx Standard Overnight, FedEx 2Day, FedEx International Priority, and FedEx International First.
- United Parcel Service (UPS): UPS Next Day Air, UPS Next Day Air Saver, UPS 2nd Day Air, UPS 2nd Day Air A.M., UPS Worldwide Express Plus, and UPS Worldwide Express.

For the IRS mailing address to use if you are using a private delivery service, go to IRS.gov and enter "private delivery service" in the search box. The private delivery service can tell you how to get written proof of the mailing date.

Private delivery services cannot deliver items to P.O. CAUTION boxes. You must use the U.S.

Postal Service to mail any items to an IRS P.O. box address.

Election To Be Taxed as a Resident Alien

You can elect to be taxed as a U.S. resident for the whole year if all of the following apply.

- You were married.
- Your spouse was a U.S. citizen or resident alien on the last day of the tax vear.
- You file a joint return for the year of the election using Form 1040, 1040A, or

To make this election, you must attach the statement described in chapter 1 of Pub. 519 to your return. Do not use Form 1040NR-EZ.

Your worldwide income for the whole vear must be included and will be taxed under U.S. tax laws. You must agree to keep the records, books, and other information needed to figure the tax. If you made the election in an earlier year, you can file a joint return or separate return for 2013. If you file a separate return, use Form 1040 or Form 1040A. You must include your worldwide income for the whole year whether you file a joint or separate return.

If you make this election, you may forfeit the right to claim CAUTION benefits otherwise available under a U.S. tax treaty. For more information about the benefits that otherwise might be available, see the specific treaty.

Dual-Status Taxpayers

If you elect to be taxed as a resident alien (discussed CAUTION earlier), the special instructions and restrictions discussed here do not apply.

Dual-Status Tax Year

A dual-status year is one in which you change status between nonresident and resident alien. Different U.S. income tax rules apply to each status.

Most dual-status years are the years of arrival or departure. Before you arrive in the United States, you are a nonresident alien. After you arrive, you may or may not be a resident, depending on the circumstances.

If you become a U.S. resident, you stay a resident until you leave the United States or are no longer a lawful permanent resident of the U.S. You may become a nonresident alien when you leave if you meet both of the following conditions.

- After leaving (or after your last day of lawful permanent residency if you met the green card test, defined earlier) and for the remainder of the calendar year of your departure, you have a closer connection to a foreign country than to the United States.
- During the next calendar year you are not a U.S. resident under either the green card test or the substantial presence test.

See Pub. 519 for more information.

What and Where To File for a Dual-Status Year

If you were a U.S. resident on the last day of the tax year, file Form 1040. Enter "Dual-Status Return" across the top and attach a statement showing your income for the part of the year you were a nonresident. You can use Form 1040NR-EZ as the statement; enter "Dual-Status Statement" across the top. Do not sign Form 1040NR-EZ. Mail your return and statement to the following address.

Department of the Treasury Internal Revenue Service Austin, TX 73301-0215 U.S.A.

If enclosing a payment, mail your return and statement to the following address.

Internal Revenue Service P.O. Box 1303 Charlotte, NC 28201-1303 U.S.A.

If you were a nonresident on the last day of the tax year, file Form 1040NR-EZ. Enter "Dual-Status Return" across the top and attach a statement showing your income for the part of the year you were a U.S. resident. You can use Form 1040 as the statement; enter "Dual-Status Statement" across the top. Do not sign Form 1040. Mail your return and statement to the following address.

Department of the Treasury Internal Revenue Service Austin, TX 73301-0215 U.S.A.

If enclosing a payment, mail your return and statement to the following address.

Internal Revenue Service P.O. Box 1303 Charlotte, NC 28201-1303 U.S.A. Statements. Any statement you file with your return must show your name, address, and identifying number (see Identifying Number, later).

Income Subject to Tax for Dual-Status Year

As a dual-status taxpayer not filing a joint return, you are taxed on income from all sources for the part of the year you were a resident alien. Generally, you are taxed on income only from U.S. sources for the part of the year you were a nonresident alien. However, all income effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States is taxable.

Income you received as a dual-status taxpayer from sources outside the United States while a resident alien is taxable even if you became a nonresident alien after receiving it and before the close of the tax year. Conversely, income you received from sources outside the United States while a nonresident alien is not taxable in most cases even if you became a resident alien after receiving it and before the close of the tax year. Income from U.S. sources is generally taxable whether you received it while a nonresident alien or a resident alien (unless specifically exempt under the Internal Revenue Code or a tax treaty provision).

Restrictions for Dual-Status Taxpayers

Standard deduction. You cannot take the standard deduction even for the part of the year you were a resident alien.

Head of household. You cannot use the Head of household Tax Table column in the Instructions for Form 1040.

Joint return. You cannot file a joint return unless you elect to be taxed as a resident alien (see Election To Be Taxed as a Resident Alien, earlier) instead of as a dual-status taxpayer.

Tax rates. If you were married and a nonresident of the United States for all or part of the tax year and you do not make the election discussed earlier to be taxed as a resident alien, you must use the Married filing separately Tax Table column to figure your tax on income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. If you were married, you cannot use the Single Tax Table column.

Deduction for exemptions. As a dual-status taxpayer, you usually will be entitled to your own personal exemption. Subject to the general rules for qualification, you are allowed an exemption for your spouse in figuring taxable income for the part of the year you were a resident alien. The amount you can claim for these exemptions is limited to your taxable income (determined without regard to exemptions) for the part of the year you were a resident alien. You cannot use exemptions (other than your own) to reduce taxable income to below zero for that period.

Special rules apply for exemptions for the part of the year a dual-status taxpayer is a nonresident alien if the taxpayer is a resident of Canada, Mexico, or South Korea; a U.S. national (defined later); or a student or business apprentice from India. See Pub. 519 for more information.

Tax credits. You cannot take the earned income credit, the credit for the elderly or disabled, or any education credit unless you elect to be taxed as a resident alien (see Election To Be Taxed as a Resident Alien, earlier) instead of as a dual-status taxpayer. For information on other credits, see chapter 6 of Pub. 519.

How To Figure Tax for a Dual-Status Tax Year

When you figure your U.S. tax for a dual-status year, you are subject to different rules for the part of the year you were a resident and the part of the year you were a nonresident.

All income for the period of residence and all income that is effectively connected with a trade or business in the United States for the period of nonresidence, after allowable deductions, is combined and taxed at the same rates that apply to U.S. citizens and residents.

Credit for taxes paid. You are allowed a credit against your U.S. income tax liability for certain taxes you paid, or are considered to have paid, or that were withheld from your income. These include:

 Taxes withheld from wages earned in the United States and taxes withheld at the source from scholarship income from U.S. sources.

When filing Form 1040, show the total tax withheld on line 62. Enter amounts from the attached statement (Form 1040NR-EZ, lines 18a and 18b) in the column to the right of line 62 and identify and include them in the amount on line 62.

When filing Form 1040NR-EZ, show the total tax withheld on lines 18a and 18b. Enter the amount from the attached statement (Form 1040, line 62) in the column to the right of line 18a, and identify and include it in the amount on line 18a.

- 2. Estimated tax paid with Form 1040-ES or Form 1040-ES (NR).
- 3. Tax paid with Form 1040-C at the time of departure from the United States. When filing Form 1040, include the tax paid with Form 1040-C with the total payments on line 72. Identify the payment in the area to the left of the entry.

Line Instructions for Form 1040NR-EZ

Name and Address

Enter your name, street address, city or town, and country on the appropriate lines. Include an apartment number after the street address, if applicable.

P.O. box. Enter your box number only if your post office does not deliver mail to your home.

Foreign address. If you have a foreign address, enter the city name on the appropriate line. Do not enter any other information on that line, but also complete the spaces below that line.

Country name. Do not abbreviate the country name. Enter the name in uppercase letters in English. Follow the country's practice for entering the postal code and the name of the province, county, or state.

Address change. If you plan to move after filing your return, use Form 8822, Change of Address, to notify the IRS of your new address.

Name change. If you changed your name because of marriage, divorce, etc., and your identifying number is a social security number, be sure to report the change to the Social Security Administration (SSA) before filing your return. This prevents delays in processing your return and issuing refunds. It also safeguards your future social security benefits. See Social security number (SSN) below for how to contact the SSA.

Death of a taxpayer. See Death of a Taxpayer, later.

Identifying Number

An incorrect or missing identifying number can increase your tax, reduce your refund, or delay your refund.

Social security number (SSN). In most cases, you are required to enter your SSN. If you do not have an SSN but are eligible to get one, you should apply for it. Get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, online at www.socialsecurity.gov, from your local Social Security Administration (SSA) office, or by calling the SSA at 1-800-772-1213.

Fill in Form SS-5 and bring it to your local SSA office in person, along with original documentation showing your age, identity, immigration status, and authority to work in the United States. If you are an F-1 or M-1 student, you also must show your Form I-20. If you are a J-1 exchange visitor, you also must show your Form DS-2019. It usually takes about 2 weeks to get an SSN once the SSA has all the evidence and information it needs.

Check that both the name and SSN on your Forms 1040NR-EZ, W-2, and 1099 agree with your social security card. If they do not, certain deductions and credits on your Form 1040NR-EZ may be reduced or disallowed and you may not receive credit for your social security earnings. If your Form W-2 shows an incorrect SSN or name, notify your employer or the form-issuing agent as soon as possible to make sure your earnings are credited to your social security record. If the name or SSN on your social security card is incorrect, call the SSA at 1-800-772-1213.

IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). If you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, you must enter your ITIN whenever an SSN is requested on your tax return.

For details on how to apply for an ITIN, see Form W-7, Application for IRS

Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, and its instructions. Get Form W-7 online at IRS.gov. Enter "ITIN" in the search box.

It usually takes 6 to 10 weeks to get an ITIN.

ITINs issued after 2012 are valid for only 5 years. After the 5-year period ends, you must lote. An ITIN is for tax use only.

Note. An ITIN is for tax use only. It does not entitle you to social security benefits or change your employment or immigration status under U.S. law.

Filing Status

Lines 1 and 2. The amount of your tax depends on your filing status. Before you decide which box to check, read the following explanations.

Were You Single or Married?

Single. You can check the box on line 1 if any of the following was true on December 31, 2013.

- You were never married.
- You were legally separated under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance. But if, at the end of 2013, your divorce was not final, you are considered married and cannot check the box on line 1.
- You were widowed before January 1, 2013, and did not remarry before the end of 2013.
- You meet the tests described under Married persons who live apart, later.

Married. If you were married on December 31, 2013, consider yourself married for the whole year, even if you did not live with your spouse at the end of 2013.

If your spouse died in 2013, consider yourself married to that spouse for the whole year, unless you remarried before the end of 2013.

Same-sex marriage. For federal tax purposes, individuals of the same sex are considered married if they were lawfully married in a state (or foreign country) whose laws authorize the marriage of two individuals of the same sex, even if the state (or foreign country) in which they now live does not recognize same-sex marriage. The term "spouse" includes an individual married to a person of the same sex if the couple is lawfully married under state (or foreign) law. However, individuals who have entered into a registered domestic partnership, civil union, or other similar relationship that is not considered a marriage under state (or foreign) law are not considered married for federal tax purposes. For more details, see Pub. 501.

U.S. national. A U.S. national is an individual who, although not a U.S. citizen, owes his or her allegiance to the United States. U.S. nationals include American Samoans and Northern Mariana Islanders who chose to become U.S. nationals instead of U.S. citizens.

Married persons who live apart.

Some married persons who have a child and who do not live with their spouse can file as single. If you meet all five of the following tests and you are a married resident of Canada, Mexico, or South Korea, or you are a married U.S. national, check the box on line 1.

- You file a separate return from your spouse.
- 2. You paid over half the cost of keeping up your home for 2013.
- 3. You lived apart from your spouse for the last 6 months of 2013. Temporary absences for special circumstances, such as for business, medical care, school, or military service, count as time lived in the home.
- 4. Your home was the main home of your child, stepchild, or foster child for more than half of 2013. Temporary absences by you or the child for special circumstances, such as school, vacation, business, or medical care, count as time the child lived in the home. If the child was born or died in 2013, you still can file as single as long as the home was that child's main home for the part of the year he or she was alive in 2013.
- 5. You can claim a dependency exemption for the child (on Form 1040NR) or the child's other parent claims him or her as a dependent under the rules for children of divorced or separated parents. See Form 8332, Release/Revocation of Release of Claim to Exemption for Child by Custodial Parent.

Adopted child. An adopted child is always treated as your own child. An adopted child includes a child lawfully placed with you for legal adoption.

Foster child. A foster child is any child placed with you by an authorized placement agency or by judgment, decree, or other order of any court of competent jurisdiction.

Rounding Off to Whole Dollars

You can round off cents to whole dollars on your return. If you do round to whole dollars, you must round all amounts. To round, drop amounts under 50 cents and increase amounts from 50 to 99 cents to the next dollar. For example, $1.39 becomes $1 and $2.50 becomes

If you have to add two or more amounts to figure the amount to enter on a line, include cents when adding the amounts and round off only the total.

Taxable Income

Line 3—Wages, salaries, tips, etc. Enter the total of your effectively connected wages, salaries, tips, etc. Only U.S. source income is included on line 3 as effectively connected wages. For most people, the amount to enter on this line should be shown in box 1 of their Form(s) W-2.

Do not include on line 3 amounts exempted under a tax CAUTION treaty. Instead, include these amounts on line 6 and complete item J of Schedule OI on page 2 of Form 1040NR-EZ.

The following types of income also must be included in the total.

- Wages received as a household employee for which you did not receive a Form W-2 because your employer paid you less than $1,800 in 2013. Also, enter "HSH" and the amount not reported on Form W-2 on the dotted line next to line 3.
- Tip income you did not report to your employer. This should include any allocated tips shown in box 8 on your Form(s) W-2 unless you can prove that your unreported tips are less than the amount in box 8. Allocated tips are not included as income in box 1. See Pub. 531, Reporting Tip Income, for more details. Also include the value of any noncash tips you received, such as tickets, passes, or other items of value. Although you do not report these noncash tips to your employer, you must report them on line 3.

You may owe social security and Medicare tax on CAUTION unreported tips. See the instructions for line 16, later.

 Disability pensions shown on Form 1042-S or Form 1099-R if you have not reached the minimum retirement age set by your employer. Note. You must use Form 1040NR to report disability pensions received after you reach your employer's minimum retirement age and other payments shown on Form 1042-S or Form 1099-R.

• Wages from Form 8919, line 6.

Missing or incorrect Form W-2. Your employer is required to provide or send Form W-2 to you no later than January 31, 2014. If you do not receive it by early February, ask your employer for it. Even if you do not get a Form W-2, you still must report your earnings on line 3. If you lose your Form W-2 or it is incorrect, ask your employer for a new Dependent care benefits. If you received benefits for 2013 under your employer's dependent care plan, you must use Form 1040NR. The benefits should be shown in box 10 of your Form(s) W-2.

Adoption benefits. If you received employer-provided adoption benefits for 2013, you must use Form 1040NR. The benefits should be shown in box 12 of your Form(s) W-2, with code T.

Tax-exempt interest. Certain types of interest income from investments in state and municipal bonds and similar instruments are not taxed by the United States. If you received such tax-exempt interest income, enter "TEI" and the amount of your tax-exempt interest on the dotted line next to line 3. Include any exempt-interest dividends from a mutual fund or other regulated investment company.

Do not include interest earned on your individual retirement arrangement (IRA), health savings account, Archer or Medicare Advantage MSA, or Coverdell education savings account. Also, do not include interest from a U.S. bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or similar institution (or from certain deposits with U.S. insurance companies) that is exempt from tax under a tax treaty or under section 871(i) because the interest is not effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. Do not add any tax-exempt interest to your line 3 total.

Line 4—Taxable refunds, credits, or offsets of state and local income taxes. If you received a refund, credit, or offset of state or local income taxes in 2013, you may receive a Form 1099-G. If you chose to apply part or all of the refund to your 2013 estimated state or local income tax, the amount applied is treated as received in 2013.

None of your refund is taxable if, in the year you paid the tax, you did not itemize deductions.

If you were a student or business apprentice from India in 2012 and you claimed the standard deduction on your 2012 tax return, none of your refund is taxable. See Students and business apprentices from India in chapter 5 of Pub. 519. If none of your refund is taxable, leave line 4 blank.

For details on how to figure the amount you must report as income, see Recoveries in Pub. 525, Taxable and Nontaxable Income.

Line 5—Scholarship and fellowship grants. If you received a scholarship or fellowship, part or all of it may be taxable.

If you were a degree candidate, the amounts you used for expenses other than tuition and course-related expenses (fees, books, supplies, and equipment) are generally taxable. For example, amounts used for room, board, and travel are generally taxable.

If you were not a degree candidate, the full amount of the scholarship or fellowship is generally taxable. Also, amounts received in the form of a scholarship or fellowship that are payment for teaching, research, or other services are generally taxable as wages even if the services were required to get the grant.

If the grant was reported on Form(s) 1042-S, you generally must include the amount shown in box 2 of Form(s) 1042-S on line 5. However, if any or all of that amount is exempt by treaty, do not include the treaty-exempt amount on line 5. Instead, include the treaty-exempt amount on line 6 and complete item J of Schedule OI on page 2 of Form 1040NR-EZ.

Attach any Form(s) 1042-S you received from the college or institution. If you did not receive a Form 1042-S, attach a statement from the college or institution (on their letterhead) showing the details of the grant.

For more information about scholarships and fellowships in general, see chapter 1 of Pub. 970, Tax Benefits for Education.

Example 1. You are a citizen of a country that does not have an income tax treaty in force with the United States. You are a candidate for a degree at ABC University (located in the United States). You are receiving a full scholarship from ABC University. The total amounts you received from ABC University during 2013 are as follows:

Tuition and fees	$25,000
Books, supplies, and
equipment	1,000
Room and board	9,000
	$35,000

The Form 1042-S you received from ABC University for 2013 shows $9,000 in box 2 and $1,260 (14% of $9,000) in box 9.

Note. Box 2 shows only $9,000 because withholding agents (such as ABC University) are not required to report section 117 amounts (tuition, fees, books, supplies, and equipment) on Form 1042-S.

When completing Form 1040NR-EZ:

- Enter on line 5 the $9,000 shown in box 2 of Form 1042-S.
- Enter $0 on line 8. Because section 117 amounts (tuition, fees, books, supplies, and equipment) were not included in box 2 of your Form 1042-S (and are not included on line 5 of Form 1040NR-EZ), you cannot exclude any of the section 117 amounts on line 8.
- Include on line 18b the $1,260 shown in box 9 of Form 1042-S.

Example 2. The facts are the same as in Example 1 except that you are a citizen of a country that has an income tax treaty in force with the United States that includes a provision that exempts scholarship income and you were a resident of that country immediately before leaving for the United States to attend ABC University. Also, assume that, under the terms of the tax treaty, all of your scholarship income is exempt from tax because ABC University is a nonprofit educational organization.

Note. Many tax treaties do not permit an exemption from tax on scholarship or fellowship grant income unless the income is from sources outside the United States. If you are a resident of a treaty country, you must know the terms of the tax treaty between the United States and the treaty country to claim treaty benefits on Form 1040NR-EZ. For details, see the instructions for item J of Schedule OI, later.

When completing Form 1040NR-EZ:

- Enter $0 on line 5. The $9,000 reported to you in box 2 of Form 1042-S is reported on line 6 (not line 5).
- Enter $9,000 on line 6.
- Enter $0 on line 8. Because none of the $9,000 reported to you in box 2 of Form 1042-S is included in your income, you cannot exclude it on line 8.
- Include on line 18b any withholding shown in box 9 of Form 1042-S.
- Provide all the required information in item J of Schedule OI on page 2 of Form 1040NR-EZ.

Line 6-Treaty-exempt income.

Report on line 6 the total of all your income that is exempt from tax by an income tax treaty, including both effectively connected income and not effectively connected income. Do not include this exempt income on line 7. You must complete item J of Schedule OI on page 2 of Form 1040NR-EZ to report income that is exempt from U.S. tax.

Line 8—Scholarship and fellowship grants excluded. If you received a scholarship or fellowship grant and were a degree candidate, enter amounts used for tuition and course-related expenses (fees, books, supplies, and equipment), but only to the extent the amounts are included on line 5. See the examples in the instructions for line 5, earlier.

Line 9—Student loan interest deduction. You can take this deduction if all of the following apply.

- 1. You paid interest in 2013 on a qualified student loan (defined next).
  - 2. Your filing status is single.
- 3. Your modified AGI is less than $75,000. Use lines 2 through 4 of the Student Loan Interest Deduction Worksheet, earlier, to figure your modified AGI.

Use the Student Loan Interest
Deduction Worksheet, earlier, to figure your student loan interest deduction.

Qualified student loan. This is any loan you took out to pay the qualified higher education expenses for any of the following individuals.

- 1. Yourself or your spouse.
- 2. Any person who was your dependent when the loan was taken out.

- 3. Any person you could have claimed as a dependent for the year the loan was taken out except that:
  - a. The person filed a joint return.
- b. The person had gross income that was equal to or more than the exemption amount for that year ($3,900 for 2013), or
- c. You could be claimed as a dependent on someone else's return.

The person for whom the expenses were paid must have been an eligible student (see Eligible student below). However, a loan is not a qualified student loan if (a) any of the proceeds were used for other purposes, or (b) the loan was from either a related person or a person who borrowed the proceeds under a qualified employer plan or a contract purchased under such a plan. To find out who is a related person, see Pub. 970.

Qualified higher education

expenses. Qualified higher education expenses generally include tuition, fees, room and board, and related expenses such as books and supplies. The expenses must be for education in a degree, certificate, or similar program at an eligible educational institution. An eligible educational institution includes most colleges, universities, and certain vocational schools.

For more details on these expenses, see Pub. 970.

Eligible student. An eligible student is a person who:

 Was enrolled in a degree, certificate, or other program (including a program of study abroad that was approved for credit by the institution at which the student was enrolled) leading to a recognized educational credential at an eligible educational institution, and  Carried at least half the normal full-time workload for the course of study he or she was pursuing.

Line 11—Itemized deductions. Enter the total state and local income taxes you paid or that were withheld from your salary in 2013. Use the Itemized Deductions Worksheet below to figure the amount to enter on line 11 if the amount on line 10 is more than:

- $250,000 and you checked filing status box 1, or
- $150,000 and you checked filing status box 2.

If, during 2013, you received any refunds of, or credits for, income tax paid in earlier years, do not subtract them from the amount you deduct here. Instead, see the instructions for line 4, earlier.

Note. Residents of India who were students or business apprentices may be able to take the standard deduction instead of their itemized deductions. See chapter 5 of Pub. 519 for details.

Line 13—Exemption deduction. You can claim exemptions only to the extent of your income that is effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. Generally, you can take an exemption of $3,900 for yourself. Use the Exemption Deduction Worksheet, later, to figure the amount, if any, to enter on line 13 if your adjusted gross income from line 10 is more than:

- $250,000 if you checked filing status box 1, or
- $150,000 if you checked filing status box 2.

Note. Residents of Canada, Mexico, or South Korea, and U.S. nationals may be able to claim exemptions for their dependents and, if married, their spouse. Residents of India who were students or business apprentices also may be able to take exemptions for their Line 15—Tax. Use the Tax Table, later in these instructions, to figure your tax. Be sure you use the correct column.

Line 16—Unreported social security and Medicare tax from Forms 4137 and 8919. Enter the total of any taxes from Form 4137 and Form 8919. Check the appropriate box(es).

Form 4137. If you received tips of $20 or more in any month and you did not report the full amount to your employer, you must pay the social security and Medicare or railroad retirement (RRTA) tax on the unreported tips.

Do not include the value of any noncash tips, such as tickets or passes. You do not pay social security and Medicare taxes or RRTA tax on these noncash tips.

To figure the social security and Medicare tax, use Form 4137. If you owe RRTA tax, contact your employer. Your employer will figure and collect the RRTA tax.

You may be charged a penalty equal to 50% of the social CAUTION security and Medicare or RRTA tax due on tips you received but did not report to your employer.

Form 8919. If you are an employee who received wages from an employer who did not withhold social security and Medicare tax from your wages, use Form 8919 to figure your share of the unreported tax. Include on line 16 the amount from line 13 of Form 8919.

Include the amount from line 6 of Form 8919 on Form 1040NR-EZ, line 3.

Payments

Lines 18a and 18b—Federal income tax withheld. Enter all federal income tax withheld on line 18a or 18b.

Line 18a. Enter on line 18a the total of any federal income tax withheld on your Form(s) W-2 and 1099-R. The amount(s) withheld should be shown in box 2 of Form(s) W-2 and box 4 of Form(s) 1099-R. Attach all Form(s) W-2 to the front of your return. Attach Form(s) 1099-R to the front of your return if federal income tax was withheld.

Line 18b. Enter on line 18b the total amount shown as federal income tax withheld on Form(s) 1042-S. The amount(s) withheld should be shown in box 9 of your Form(s) 1042-S. Attach all Form(s) 1042-S to the front of your return.

Refunds of taxes shown on Form 1042-S may be delayed CAUTION for up to 6 months. See Refund Information, later.

Line 19-2013 estimated tax payments. Enter any estimated federal income tax payments you made using Form 1040-ES (NR) for 2013. Include any overpayment that you applied to your 2013 estimated tax from:

- Your 2012 return, or
- An amended return (Form 1040X).

Name change. If you changed your name because of marriage, divorce, etc., and you made estimated tax payments using your former name, attach a statement to the front of Form 1040NR-EZ. On the statement, explain all of the payments you made in 2013 and show the name(s) and identifying number(s) under which you made them.

Line 20—Credit for amount paid with Form 1040-C. Enter any amount you paid with Form 1040-C for 2013.

Line 21—Total payments. Add lines 18a through 20. Enter the total on line 21.

Amount paid with request for extension of time to file. If you filed Form 4868 to get an automatic extension of time to file Form 1040NR-EZ, include in the total on line 21 any amount you paid with that form or by the electronic federal tax payment system or credit or debit card. If you paid by credit or debit card, do not include on line 21 the convenience fee you were charged. On the dotted line next to line 21, enter "Form 4868" and show the amount paid.

Refund

Line 22—Amount overpaid. If line 22 is under $1, we will send a refund only on written request.

If the amount you overpaid is large, you may want to decrease the amount of income tax withheld from your pay by filing a new Form W-4. See Income Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax Payments for 2014 under Reminders, later.

Sample Check-Lines 23b Through 23d

Note: The routing and account numbers may be in different places on your check.

Refund offset. If you owe past-due federal tax, state income tax, child support, spousal support, or certain federal nontax debts, such as student loans, all or part of the overpayment on line 22 may be used (offset) to pay the past-due amount. Offsets for federal taxes are made by the IRS. All other offsets are made by the Treasury Department's Financial Management Service (FMS). For federal tax offsets, you will receive a notice from the IRS. For all other offsets, you will receive a notice from FMS. To find out if you may have an offset or if you have any questions about it, contact the agency to which you owe the debt.

Lines 23a through 23e—Amount refunded to you. If you want to check the status of your refund, see Refund Information, later. Just use the IRS2Go phone app or go to IRS.gov and click on Where's My Refund? Information about your return will generally be available 4 weeks after you mail your return. Have your 2013 tax return handy so you can enter your social security number, your filling status, and the exact whole dollar amount of your refund.

Where's My Refund? includes a tracker that displays progress through three stages: (1) return received, (2) refund approved, and (3) refund sent. Where's My Refund? will provide an actual personalized refund date as soon as the IRS processes your tax return and approves your refund.

If you request a refund of tax withheld on a Form 1042-S, we may need additional time to process the refund. Allow up to 6 months for these refunds to be issued.

Simple. Safe. Secure.

Fast Refunds! Choose direct deposit—a fast, simple, safe, secure way to have your refund deposited automatically to your checking or savings account, including an individual retirement arrangement (IRA). See IRA, later.

If you want us to directly deposit the amount shown on line 23a to your checking or savings account, including an IRA, at a U.S. bank or other financial institution (such as a mutual fund, brokerage firm, or credit union) in the United States:

- Complete lines 23b through 23d (if you want your refund deposited to only one account), or
- Check the box on line 23a and attach Form 8888 if you want to split the direct deposit of your refund into more than one account or use all or part of your refund to buy paper series I savings bonds.

If you do not want your refund directly deposited to your account, do not check the box on line 23a. Draw a line through the boxes on lines 23b and 23d. We will send you a check instead.

Do not request a deposit of any part of your refund to an account that is not in your name, such as your tax preparer's account.

Why Use Direct Deposit?

- You get your refund faster by direct deposit than you do by check.
- Payment is more secure. There is no check that can get lost or stolen.
- It is more convenient. You do not have to make a trip to the bank to deposit your check.
- It saves tax dollars. It costs the government less to refund by direct deposit.

IRA. You can have your refund (or part of it) directly deposited to a traditional IRA, Roth IRA, or SEP-IRA, but not a SIMPLE IRA. You must establish the IRA at a bank or other financial institution before you request direct deposit. Make sure your direct deposit will be accepted. You also must notify the trustee or custodian of your account of the year to which the deposit is to be applied (unless the trustee or custodian will not accept a deposit for 2013). If you do not, the trustee or custodian can assume the deposit is for the year during which you are filing the return. For example, if you file your 2013 return during 2014 and do not notify the trustee or custodian in advance, the trustee or custodian can assume the deposit to your IRA is for 2014. If you designate your deposit to be for 2013, you must verify that the deposit was actually made to the account by the due date of the return (without regard to extensions). If the deposit is not made by that date, the deposit is not an IRA contribution for 2013.

You may be able to contribute up to $5,500 ($6,500 if age 50 or older at the end of 2013) to a traditional IRA or Roth IRA for 2013. To find the limits for 2014, see Pub. 590. You may owe a penalty if your contributions exceed these limits.

For more information on IRAs, see Pub. 590.

TreasuryDirect®. You can request a deposit of your refund (or part of it) to a TreasuryDirect® online account to buy U.S. Treasury marketable securities and savings bonds. For more information, go to www.treasurydirect.gov.

Form 8888. You can have your refund directly deposited into more than one account or use it to buy up to $5,000 in paper series I savings bonds. You do not need a TreasuryDirect® account to do this. For more information, see the Form 8888 instructions.

Line 23b. The routing number must be nine digits. The first two digits must be 01 through 12 or 21 through 32. On the sample check above, the routing number is 250250025. Rufus and Mary Maple would use that routing number unless their financial institution instructed them to use a different routing number for direct deposits.

Ask your financial institution for the correct routing number to enter on line 23b if:

- The routing number on a deposit slip is different from the routing number on your checks,
- Your deposit is to a savings account that does not allow you to write checks,
- Your checks state they are payable through a financial institution different from the one at which you have your checking account.

Line 23c. Check the appropriate box for the type of account. Do not check more than one box. If the deposit is to an account such as an IRA, health savings account, brokerage account, or other similar account, ask your financial institution whether you should check the "Checking" or "Savings" box. You must check the correct box to ensure your deposit is accepted. For a TreasuryDirect® online account, check the "Savings" box.

Line 23d. The account number can be up to 17 characters (both numbers and letters). Include hyphens but omit spaces and special symbols. Enter the number from left to right and leave any unused boxes blank. On the sample check, earlier, the account number is 20202086. Do not include the check number

If the direct deposit to your account(s) is different from the amount you expected, you will receive an explanation in the mail about 2 weeks after your refund is deposited.

Reasons Your Direct Deposit Request May Be Rejected

If any of the following apply, your direct deposit request will be rejected and a check will be sent instead.

- Any numbers or letters on lines 23b through 23d are crossed out or whited out.
- You file your 2013 return after December 31, 2014.

The IRS is not responsible for a lost refund if you enter the CAUTION wrong account information.

Check with your financial institution to get the correct routing and account numbers and to make sure your direct deposit will be accepted.

Line 23e. If you want your refund mailed to an address not listed on page 1 of Form 1040NR-EZ, enter that address here. See Foreign address, earlier, for information on entering a foreign address.

Note. If the address on page 1 is not in the United States, you can enter an address in the United States on line 23e. However, if the address on page 1 is in the United States, the IRS cannot mail a refund to a different address in the United States.

Line 24—Applied to your 2014 estimated tax. Enter on line 24 the amount, if any, of the overpayment on line 22 you want applied to your 2014 estimated tax.

This election to apply part or all of the amount overpaid to your 2014 estimated tax cannot be changed later.

Amount You Owe

To save interest and penalties, pay your taxes in full by April 15, 2014. (see When To File, earlier). You do not have to pay if line 25 is under $1.

Line 25—Amount you owe. Include any estimated tax penalty from line 26 in the amount you enter on line 25.

You can pay online, by phone, or by check or money order. Do not include any estimated tax payment for 2014 in this payment. Instead, make the estimated tax payment separately.

Bad check or payment. The penalty for writing a bad check to the IRS is $25 or 2% of the check, whichever is more. However, if the amount of the check is less than $25, the penalty is the amount of the check. This penalty also applies to other forms of payment if the IRS does not receive the funds.

Use TeleTax topic 206 by calling 1-800-829-4477 or see Tax Topic 206 on IRS.gov.

Pay Online

Paying online is convenient and secure and helps make sure we get your payments on time. You can pay using either of the following electronic payment methods.

- Direct transfer from your bank account.
- · Credit or debit card.

To pay your taxes online or for more information, go to www.irs.gov/e-pay.

Pay By Phone

Paying by phone is another safe and secure method of paying electronically. Use one of the following methods.

- Direct transfer from your bank account.
- · Credit or debit card.

To pay by direct transfer from your bank account, call EFTPS Customer Service at 1-800-555-4477 (English) or 1-800-244-4829 (Español). People who are deaf or hard of hearing, or have a speech disability and who have access to TTY/TDD equipment can call 1-800-733-4829.

To pay using a credit or debit card, you can call one of the following service providers. There is a convenience fee charged by these providers that varies by provider, card type, and payment

For the latest details on how to pay by phone, go to www.irs.gov/e-pay.

Pay By Check or Money Order

Make your check or money order payable to "United States Treasury" for the full amount due. Do not send cash. Do not attach the payment to your return. Write "2013 Form 1040NR-EZ" and your name, address, daytime phone number, and SSN or ITIN on your payment.

To help us process your payment, enter the amount on the right side of the check like this: $ XXX.XX. Do not use dashes or lines (for example, do not enter "$ XXX-" or "$ XXX**1.0").

You may need to (a) increase the amount of income tax withheld from your pay by filing a new Form W-4 or (b) make estimated tax payments for 2014. See Income Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax Payments for 2014 under Reminders, later.

What if you cannot pay? If you cannot pay the full amount shown on line 25 when you file, you can ask for:

- An installment agreement, or
- An extension of time to pay.

Installment agreement. Under an installment agreement, you can pay all or part of the tax you owe in monthly installments. However, even if your request to pay in installments is granted, you will be charged interest and may be charged a late payment penalty on the tax not paid by the due date (without extensions). You also must pay a fee. To limit the interest and penalty charges, pay as much of the tax as possible when you file. But before requesting an installment agreement, you should consider other less costly alternatives, such as a bank loan or credit card payment.

To ask for an installment agreement, you can apply online or use Form 9465. To apply online, go to IRS.gov and click on "Tools" and then "Online Payment Agreement."

Extension of time to pay. If paying the tax when it is due would cause you an undue hardship, you can ask for an extension of time to pay by filing Form 1127, Application for Extension of Time for Payment of Tax Due to Undue Hardship, on or before the due date (without regard to extensions) for filing your return. An extension generally will not be granted for more than 6 months. You will be charged interest on the tax not paid by the due date (without regard to extensions) for filing your return. You must pay the tax before the extension runs out. If you do not, penalties may be imposed.

If the due date is April 15, 2014, and you pay after April 15, CAUTION 2014, you will be charged interest on the tax not paid by April 15, 2014.

Line 26—Estimated tax penalty. You may owe this penalty if:

- Line 25 is at least $1,000 and it is more than 10% of the tax shown on your return, or
- You did not pay enough estimated tax by any of the due dates. This is true even if you are due a refund.

The "tax shown on your return" is the amount on your 2013 Form 1040NR-EZ, line 15.

Exception. You will not owe the penalty if your 2012 tax return was for a tax year of 12 full months and either of the following applies.

- You had no tax shown on your 2012 return and you were a U.S. citizen or resident for all of 2012.
- 2. Line 21 on your 2013 return is at least 100% of the tax shown on your 2012 return. (But see Caution below.)

Your estimated tax payments for 2013 must have been made on time and for the required amount.

If your 2012 AGI was over $150,000 (over $75,000 if you CAUTION checked filing status box 2 for 2013), item (2) applies only if line 21 on your 2013 tax return is at least 110% of the tax shown on your 2012 return. This rule does not apply to farmers and fishermen.

For most people, the "tax shown on your 2012 return" is the amount on your 2012 Form 1040NR-EZ, line 15.

Figuring the penalty. If the exception above does not apply and you choose to figure the penalty yourself, see Form 2210 (or 2210-F for farmers or fishermen) to find out if you owe the penalty. If you do, you can use the form to figure the amount.

Enter the penalty on line 26. Add the penalty to any tax due and enter the total on line 25.

However, if you have an overpayment on line 22, subtract the penalty from the amount you otherwise would enter on line 23a or line 24. Lines 23a, 24, and 26 must equal line 22.

If the penalty is more than the overpayment on line 22, enter -0- on lines 23a and 24. Then subtract line 22 from line 26 and enter the result on

Do not file Form 2210 with your return unless Form 2210 indicates that you must do so. Instead, keep it for your records.

Because Form 2210 is complicated, you can leave line 26 blank and the IRS will figure the penalty and send you a bill. We will not charge you interest on the penalty if you pay by the date specified on the bill. If your income varied during the year, the annualized income installment method may reduce the amount of your penalty. But you must file Form 2210 because the IRS cannot figure your penalty under this method. See the Instructions for Form 2210 for other situations in which you may be able to lower your penalty by filing Form 2210.

Third Party Designee

If you want to allow your preparer, a friend, family member, or any other person you choose to discuss your 2013 tax return with the IRS, check the "Yes" box in the "Third Party Designee" area of your return. Also, enter the designee's name, U.S. phone number, and any five digits the designee chooses as his or her personal identification number (PIN).

If you check the "Yes" box, you are authorizing the IRS to call the designee to answer any questions that may arise during the processing of your return. You also are authorizing the designee

- Give the IRS any information that is missing from your return,
- Call the IRS for information about the processing of your return or the status of your refund or payment(s),
- Receive copies of notices or transcripts related to your return, upon request, and
- Respond to certain IRS notices about math errors, offsets, and return preparation.

You are not authorizing the designee to receive any refund check, bind you to anything (including any additional tax liability), or otherwise represent you before the IRS. If you want to expand the designee's authorization, see Pub. 947, Practice Before the IRS and Power of Attorney.

The authorization will automatically end no later than the due date (without regard to extensions) for filing your 2014 tax return (see When To File, earlier). If you want to revoke the authorization before it ends, see Pub. 947.

Sign Your Return

Form 1040NR-EZ is not considered a valid return unless you sign it. Be sure to date your return and enter your occupation(s) in the United States. If you have someone prepare your return, you are still responsible for the correctness of the return. If your return is signed by a representative for you, you must have a power of attorney attached that specifically authorizes the representative to sign your return. To do this, you can use Form 2848.

You can have an agent in the United States prepare and sign your return if you could not do so for one of the following reasons:

- You were ill.
- You were not in the United States at any time during the 60 days before the return was due.
- Other reasons approved by the IRS, which you explain in writing to:

Department of the Treasury Internal Revenue Service Austin, TX 73301-0215 U.S.A.

Court-appointed conservator, guardian, or other fiduciary. If you are a court-appointed conservator, guardian, or other fiduciary for a mentally or physically incompetent individual who has to file Form 1040NR-EZ, sign your name for the individual. File Form 56.

Child's return. If your child cannot sign the return, either parent can sign the child's name in the space provided. Then enter "By (your signature), parent for minor child."

Identity Protection PIN

For 2013, if you received an Identity Protection Personal Identification

Number (IP PIN) from the IRS, enter it in the IP PIN spaces provided below your daytime phone number. You must correctly enter all six numbers of your IP PIN. If you did not receive an IP PIN, leave these spaces blank.

New IP PINs are issued every year. Enter the latest IP PIN CAUTION you received. IP PINs for 2013 tax returns generally were sent in December 2013.

If you need more information or answers to frequently asked questions on how to use the IP PIN, go to www.irs.gov/Individuals/ Understanding-Your-CP01A-Notice. If you received an IP PIN but misplaced it, call 1-800-908-4490, extension 245.

Paid Preparer Must Sign Your Return

Generally, anyone you pay to prepare your return must sign it and include their preparer tax identification number (PTIN) in the space provided. The preparer must give you a copy of the return for your records. Someone who prepares your return but does not charge you should not sign your return.

Instructions for Schedule OI, Other Information

Answer all questions.

Item A

List all countries of which you were a citizen or national during the tax year.

Item B

List the country in which you claimed residence for tax purposes during the tax year.

Item C

If you have completed immigration Form I-485 and submitted the form to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, you have applied to become a green card holder (lawful permanent resident) of the United States.

Item D

If you checked "Yes" for D1 or D2, you may be a U.S. tax expatriate and special rules may apply to you. See Expatriation Tax in chapter 4 of Pub. 519 for more information.

Item E

If you had a visa on the last day of the tax year, enter your visa type. Examples are the following.

- B-1 Visitor for business.
- F-1 Students-academic institutions.
- H-1B Temporary worker with specialty occupation.
- J-1 Exchange visitor.

If you did not have a visa, enter your U.S. immigration status on the last day of the tax year. For example, if you entered under the visa waiver program, enter "VWP" and the name of the Visa Waiver Program Country.

If you were not present in the United States on the last day of the tax year, and you have no U.S. immigration status, enter "Not present in U.S.—No U.S. immigration status."

Item F

If you ever changed your visa type or U.S. immigration status, check the "Yes" box. For example, you entered the United States in 2012 on an F-1 visa as an academic student. During 2013, you changed to an H-1B visa as a teacher. You will check the "Yes" box and enter on the dotted line "Changed status from F-1 student to H-1B teacher on August 20, 2013."

Item G

Enter the dates you entered and left the United States during 2013 on short business trips or to visit family, go on vacation, or return home briefly.

If you are a resident of Canada or Mexico and commute to work in the United States on more than 75% of the workdays during your working period, you are a regular commuter and do not need to enter the dates you entered and left the United States during the year. Commute means to travel to work and return to your residence within a 24-hour period. Check the appropriate box for Canada or Mexico and skip to item H. See Days of Presence in the United States in chapter 1 of Pub. 519.

If you were in the United States on January 1, enter 1/1 as the first date you entered the United States. If you were in the United States on December 31, do not enter a final date departed.

Item H

Review your entry and passport stamps or other records to count the number of days you were actually present in the United States during the years listed. A day of presence is any day that you are physically present in the United States at any time during the 24-hour period beginning at 12:01 a.m. For the list of exceptions to the days you must count as actually present in the United States, see Days of Presence in the United States in chapter 1 of Pub. 519. If you were not in the United States on any day of the tax year, enter -0-.

Item I

If you filed a U.S. income tax return for a prior year, enter the latest year for which you filed a return and the form number you filed.

Item J

Line 1. If you are a resident of a treaty country (that is, you qualify as a resident of that country within the meaning of the tax treaty between the United States and that country), you must know the terms of the tax treaty between the United States and that country to properly complete item J. You can download the complete text of most U.S. tax treaties at IRS.gov. Enter "tax treaties" in the search box. Technical explanations for many of those treaties are also available at that site. Also, see Pub. 901 for a quick reference guide to the provisions of U.S. tax treaties.

If you are claiming exemption from income tax under a U.S. income tax treaty with a foreign country on Form 1040NR-EZ, you must provide all the information requested in item J.

Column (a), Country. Enter the treaty country that qualifies you for treaty benefits.

Column (b), Tax treaty article. Enter the number of the treaty article that exempts the income from U.S. tax.

Column (c), Number of months claimed in prior tax years. Enter the number of months in prior tax years for which you claimed an exemption from U.S. tax based on the specified treaty article.

Column (d), Amount of exempt income in current tax year. Enter the amount of income in the current tax year that is exempt from U.S. tax based on the specified treaty article.

Line (e), Total. Add the amounts in column (d). Enter the total on line 1e and on page 1, line 6. Do not include this amount in the amounts entered on Form 1040NR-EZ, page 1, line 3 or 5.

If required, attach Form 8833. See Treaty-based return position disclosure, later.

Line 2. Check "Yes" if you were subject to tax in a foreign country on any of the income reported on line 1, column (d).

Example. Sara is a citizen of Italy and was a resident there until

Example. Item J—Income Exempt from Tax by Treaty

September 2012, when she moved to the United States to accept a position as a high school teacher at an accredited public high school. Sara came to the United States on a J-1 visa (Exchange visitor) and signed a contract to teach for 2 years at this U.S. school. She began teaching in September 2012 and plans to continue teaching through May 2014. Sara's salary per school year is $40,000. She plans to return to Italy in June 2014 and resume her Italian residence. For calendar year 2013, Sara earned $40,000 from her teaching position. She completes the table in item J on her 2013 tax return as shown in Example. Item J—Income Exempt from Tax by Treaty, earlier.

If you are claiming tax treaty benefits and you failed to CAUTION submit adequate documentation to a withholding agent, you must attach to your tax return all information that otherwise would have been required on the withholding tax document (for example, all information required on Form W-8BEN or Form 8233).

Treaty-based return position disclosure. If you take the position that a treaty of the United States overrides or modifies any provision of the Internal Revenue Code and that position reduces (or potentially reduces) your tax, you must report certain information on Form 8833 and attach it to Form 1040NR-EZ.

If you fail to report the required information, you will be charged a penalty of $1,000 for each failure, unless you show that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect. For more details, see Form 8833 and its instructions.

Exceptions. You do not have to file Form 8833 for any of the following.

- 1. You claim a treaty reduces the withholding tax on interest, dividends, rents, royalties, or other fixed or determinable annual or periodical income ordinarily subject to the 30% rate.
- 2. You claim a treaty reduces or modifies the taxation of income from dependent personal services, pensions, annuities, social security and other public pensions, or income of artists, athletes, students, trainees, or teachers. This includes taxable scholarship and fellowship grants.
- 3. You claim an International Social Security Agreement or a Diplomatic or Consular Agreement reduces or modifies the taxation of income.

- You are a partner in a partnership or a beneficiary of an estate or trust and the partnership, estate, or trust reports the required information on its return.
- 5. The payments or items of income that otherwise are required to be disclosed total no more than $10,000.

Reminders

Return Checklist

This checklist can help you file a correct return. Mistakes can delay your refund or result in notices being sent to you.

Did you:

Enter your name and address in the correct order in the spaces provided on Form 1040NR-EZ? Enter the correct SSN or ITIN in the space provided on Form 1040NR-EZ? Check that your name and SSN or ITIN agree with your social security card or the IRS notice assigning your ITIN. Use the amount from line 14 (Taxable income), and the proper filing status, to find your tax in the Tax Table? Be sure you entered the correct tax on line 15. Check your math, especially when figuring your taxable income, federal income tax withheld, total payments, and refund or amount you owe? Enter the correct amounts for line 11 (Itemized deductions) and line 13 (Exemption)? Sign and date Form 1040NR-EZ and enter your occupation(s) in the United States? Include your apartment number in your address if you live in an apartment? Attach your Form(s) W-2, 1042-S, and 1099-R to the front of the return? Attach Form(s) 1099-R only if federal income tax was withheld. Include all the required information on your payment if you owe tax and are paying by check or money order? See the instructions for line 25, earlier, for details. File only one original return for the same year, even if you have not gotten your refund or have not heard from the IRS since you filed? Filing more than one original return for the same year or sending in more than one copy of the same return (unless we ask you to do so)

Refund Information

and click on Where's Mv

Refund? 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Information about your return will generally be available within 4 weeks after you mail your return.

To use Where's My Refund? have a copy of your tax return handy. You will need to enter the following information from your return:

- Your SSN or ITIN,
- Your filing status, and
- The exact whole dollar amount of your expected refund.

Refund of tax withheld on a Form 1042-S. If you request a refund of tax withheld on a Form 1042-S, we may need additional time to process the refund. Allow up to 6 months for these refunds to be issued.

Updates to refund status are made once a day—usually at night.

If you do not have Internet access, you have two options.

- You can check the status of your refund on the free IRS2Go phone app.
- If you are in the United States, call 1-800-829-1954 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, for automated refund information. Our live phone and walk-in assistors can research the status of your refund only if it's been more than 6 weeks since you mailed your paper

Do not send in a copy of your return unless asked to do so.

To get a refund, you generally must file your return within 3 years from the date the return was due (including extensions).

Where's My Refund? does not track refunds that are claimed on an amended tax return.

Refund information also is available in Spanish at www.irs.gov/espanol and the phone number listed earlier.

Income Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax Payments for 2014

If the amount you owe or the amount you overpaid is large, you may want to file a new Form W-4 with your employer to change the amount of income tax withheld from your 2014 pay. For details could delay your refund.

on how to complete Form W-4, see the Instructions for Form 8233 and Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens.

If you do not pay your tax through withholding, or do not pay enough tax that way, you might have to pay estimated tax. In general, you do not have to make estimated tax payments if you expect that your 2014 Form 1040NR-EZ will show a tax refund or a tax balance due of less than $1,000. If your total estimated tax for 2014 is $1,000 or more, see Form 1040-ES (NR). It has a worksheet you can use to see if you have to make estimated tax payments. However, if you expect to be a resident of Puerto Rico during all of 2014 and you must pay estimated tax, use Form 1040-ES. For more information, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, and Pub. 519.

How Do You Get a Copy of Your Tax Return?

If you need a copy of your tax return, use Form 4506. There is a fee for each return requested. See Form 4506 for the current fee. If your main home, principal place of business, or tax records are located in a federally declared disaster area, this fee will be waived. If you want a free transcript of your tax return or account:

- Use Form 4506-T or 4506T-EZ,
- Visit IRS.gov and click on "Order a Tax Return or Account Transcript,"
- If you are in the United States, call 1-800-908-9946, or
- If you are outside the United States, call 267-941-1000 (English-speaking only). This number is not toll-free.

How Do You Amend Your Tax Return?

File Form 1040X to change a return you already filed. Also, use Form 1040X if you filed Form 1040NR-EZ and you should have filed Form 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ, or vice versa. Generally, Form 1040X must be filed within 3 years after the date the original return was filed or within 2 years after the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. You may have more time to file Form 1040X if you live in a federally declared disaster area or you are physically or mentally unable to manage your financial affairs. See Pub. 519 and Pub. 556, Examination of Returns, Appeal Rights, and Claims for Refund, for details.

Past Due Returns

If you or someone you know needs to file past due tax returns, use TeleTax topic 153 or go to www.irs.gov/individuals for help in filing those returns. Send the return to the address that applies to you in the latest Form 1040NR-EZ instructions. For example, if you are filing a 2010 return in 2014, use the address in <a href="www.where.com/where.

Interest and Penalties

You do not have to figure the amount of any interest or penalties you may owe. Because figuring these amounts can be complicated, we will do it for you if you want. We will send you a bill for any amount due.

If you include interest or penalties (other than the estimated tax penalty) with your payment, identify and enter the amount in the bottom margin of Form 1040NR-EZ, page 1. Do not include interest or penalties (other than the estimated tax penalty) in the amount you owe on line 25.

Interest. We will charge you interest on taxes not paid by their due date, even if an extension of time to file is granted. We also will charge you interest on penalties imposed for failure to file, negligence, fraud, substantial valuation misstatements, substantial understatements of tax, and reportable transaction understatements. Interest is charged on the penalty from the due date of the return (including extensions).

Penalty for late filing. If you do not file your return by the due date (including extensions), the penalty is usually 5% of the amount due for each month or part of a month your return is late, unless you have a reasonable explanation. If you do, include it with your return. The penalty can be as much as 25% of the tax due. The penalty is 15% per month, up to a maximum of 75%, if the failure to file is fraudulent. If your return is more than 60 days late, the minimum penalty will be $135 or the amount of any tax you owe, whichever is smaller.

Penalty for late payment of tax. If you pay your taxes late, the penalty is usually ½ of 1% of the unpaid amount for each month or part of a month the tax is not paid. The penalty can be as much as 25% of the unpaid amount. It applies to any unpaid tax on the return. This penalty is in addition to interest charges on late payments.

Penalty for frivolous return. In addition to any other penalties, the law imposes a penalty of $5,000 for filing a frivolous return. A frivolous return is one that does not contain information needed to figure the correct tax or shows a substantially incorrect tax because you take a frivolous position or desire to delay or interfere with the tax laws. This includes altering or striking out the preprinted language above the space where you sign. For a list of positions identified as frivolous, see Notice 2010-33, 2010-17 I.R.B. 609, available at www.irs.gov/irb/2010-17 IRB/ar13.html.

Other penalties. Other penalties can be imposed for negligence, substantial understatement of tax, reportable transaction understatements, filing an erroneous refund claim, and fraud. Criminal penalties may be imposed for willful failure to file, tax evasion, making a false statement, or identity theft. See Pub. 519 for details on some of these penalties.

How Long Should Records Be Kept?

Keep a copy of your tax return, worksheets you used, and records of all items appearing on it (such as Forms W-2, 1042-S, and 1099) until the statute of limitations runs out for that return. Usually, this is 3 years from the date the return was due or filed or 2 years from the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. You should keep some records longer. For example, keep property records (including those on your home) as long as they are needed to figure the basis of the original or replacement property. For more details, see What Records Should I Keep in chapter 1 of Pub. 17.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information, such as your name, social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN or ITIN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN or ITIN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter. For more information, see Pub. 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, etc., contact the IRS Identity Protection Specialized Unit at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a systemic problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the National Taxpayer Advocate helpline at 1-877-777-4778. People who are deaf or hard of hearing, or have a speech disability and who have access to TTY/TTD equipment can call 1-800-829-4059. People who are deaf or hard of hearing, or have a speech disability can also contact the IRS through relay services such as the Federal Relay Service available at www.gsa.gov/fedrelay.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common form is the act of sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request detailed personal information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward the message to phishing@irs.gov. You also may report misuse of the IRS name, logo, forms, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration toll-free at 1-800-366-4484. People who are deaf or hard of hearing, or have a speech disability and who have access to TTY/TDD equipment can call 1-800-877-8339. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338). People who are deaf or hard of hearing, or have a speech disability and who have access to TTY/TDD equipment can call 1-866-653-4261.

Visit IRS.gov and enter "identity theft" in the search box to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk

What Are Your Rights as a Taxpayer?

You have the right to be treated fairly, professionally, promptly, and courteously by IRS employees. Our goal at the IRS is to protect your rights so that you will have the highest confidence in the integrity, efficiency, and fairness of our tax system. To ensure that you always receive such treatment, you should know about the many rights you have at each step of the tax process. For details, see Pub. 1, Your Rights As A Taxpayer.

How to Get Tax Help

Whether it's help with a tax issue, preparing your tax return or a need for a free publication or form, get the help you need the way you want it: online, use a smart phone, call or walk in to an IRS office or volunteer site near you.

Free help with your tax return. You can get free help preparing your return nationwide from IRS-certified volunteers. The Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program helps low-to-moderate income, elderly, people with disabilities, and limited English proficient taxpayers. The Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) program helps taxpayers age 60 and older with their tax returns. Most VITA and TCE sites offer free electronic filing and all volunteers will let you know about credits and deductions you may be entitled to claim. In addition, some VITA and TCE sites provide taxpayers the opportunity to prepare their own return with help from an IRS-certified volunteer. To find the nearest VITA or TCE site, you can use the VITA Locator Tool on IRS.gov, download the IRS2Go app, or call 1-800-906-9887.

As part of the TCE program, AARP offers the Tax-Aide counseling program. To find the nearest AARP Tax-Aide site, visit AARP's website at www.aarp.org/money/taxaide or call 1-888-227-7669.

For more information on these programs, go to IRS.gov and enter "VITA" in the search box.

Internet. IRS.gov and IRS2Go are ready when you are—24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

- Download the free IRS2Go app from the iTunes app store or from Google Play. Use it to check your refund status, order transcripts of your tax returns or tax account, watch the IRS YouTube channel, get IRS news as soon as it's released to the public, subscribe to filing season updates or daily tax tips, and follow the IRS Twitter news feed, @IRSnews, to get the latest federal tax news, including information about tax law changes and important IRS programs.
- Check the status of your 2013 refund with the Where's My Refund? application on IRS.gov or download the IRS2Go app and select the Refund Status option. The IRS issues more than 9 out of 10 refunds in less than 21 days. Using these applications, you can start checking on the status of your return within 24 hours after we receive your e-filed return or 4 weeks after you mail a paper return. You will also be given a personalized refund date as soon as the IRS processes your tax return and approves your refund. The IRS updates Where's My Refund? every 24 hours, usually overnight, so you only need to check once a day.
- Use the Interactive Tax Assistant (ITA) to research your tax questions. No need to wait on the phone or stand in line. The ITA is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and provides you with a variety of tax information related to general filing topics, deductions, credits, and income. When you reach the response screen, you can print the entire interview and the final response for your records. New subject areas are added on a regular basis.

  Answers not provided through ITA may be found in Tax Trails, one of the Tax Topics on IRS.gov which contain Topics on IRS.gov which contain general individual and business tax information or by searching the IRS Tax Map, which includes an international subject index. You can use the IRS Tax Map, to search publications and instructions by topic or keyword. The IRS Tax Map integrates forms and publications into one research tool and provides single-point access to tax law information by subject. When the user searches the IRS Tax Map, they will be provided with links to related content in existing IRS publications, forms and instructions, questions and answers, and Tax Topics.

- Coming this filing season, you can immediately view and print for free all 5 types of individual federal tax transcripts (tax returns, tax account, record of account, wage and income statement, and certification of non-filing) using Get Transcript. You can also ask the IRS to mail a return or an account transcript to you. Only the mail option is available by choosing the Tax Records option on the IRS2Go app by selecting Mail Transcript on IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-908-9946. Tax return and tax account transcripts are generally available for the current year and the past three years.
- Determine if you are eligible for the EITC and estimate the amount of the credit with the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) Assistant.
- Visit Understanding Your IRS Notice or Letter to get answers to questions about a notice or letter you received from the IRS.
- If you received the First Time Homebuyer Credit, you can use the First Time Homebuyer Credit Account Look-up tool for information on your repayments and account balance.
- Check the status of your amended return using Where's My Amended Return? Go to IRS.gov and enter Where's My Amended Return? in the search box. You can generally expect your amended return to be processed up to 12 weeks from the date we receive it. It can take up to 3 weeks from the date you mailed it to show up in our system.
- Make a payment using one of several safe and convenient electronic payment options available on IRS.gov. Select the Payment tab on the front page of IRS.gov for more information.
- Determine if you are eligible and apply for an online payment agreement, if you owe more tax than you can pay today.
- Figure your income tax withholding with the IRS Withholding Calculator on IRS.gov. Use it if you've had too much or too little withheld, your personal situation has changed, you're starting a new job or you just want to see if you're having the right amount withheld.
- Determine if you might be subject to the Alternative Minimum Tax by using the Alternative Minimum Tax Assistant on IRS.gov.
- Request an Electronic Filing PIN by going to IRS.gov and entering Electronic Filing PIN in the search box.
- Download forms, instructions and publications, including accessible versions for people with disabilities.

- Locate the nearest Taxpayer Assistance Center (TAC) using the Office Locator tool on IRS.gov, or choose the Contact Us option on the IRS2Go app and search Local Offices. An employee can answer questions about your tax account or help you set up a payment plan. Before you visit, check the Office Locator on IRS.gov, or Local Offices under Contact Us on IRS2Go to confirm the address, phone number, days and hours of operation, and the services provided. If you have a special need, such as a disability, you can request an appointment. Call the local number listed in the Office Locator, or look in the phone book under United States Government, Internal Revenue
- Apply for an Employer Identification Number (EIN). Go to IRS.gov and enter Apply for an EIN in the search box.
- Read the Internal Revenue Code, regulations, or other official guidance.
- Read Internal Revenue Bulletins.
- Sign up to receive local and national tax news and more by email. Just click on "subscriptions" above the search box on IRS.gov and choose from a variety of options.

Phone. You can call the IRS, or you can carry it in your pocket with the IRS2Go app on your smart phone or tablet. Download the free IRS2Go app from the iTunes app store or from Google Play.

- Call to locate the nearest volunteer help site, 1-800-906-9887 or you can use the VITA Locator Tool on IRS.gov. or download the IRS2Go app. Low-to-moderate income, elderly, people with disabilities, and limited English proficient taxpavers can get free help with their tax return from the nationwide Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program. The Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) program helps taxpayers age 60 and older with their tax returns. Most VITA and TCE sites offer free electronic filing. Some VITA and TCE sites provide IRS-certified volunteers who can help prepare your tax return. Through the TCE program, AARP offers the Tax-Aide counseling program; call 1-888-227-7669 to find the nearest Tax-Aide location.
- Call the automated Where's My Refund? information hotline to check the status of your 2013 refund 24 hours a day, 7 days a week at 1-800-829-1954. If you e-file, you can start checking on the status of your return within 24 hours after the IRS receives your tax return or 4 weeks after you've mailed a paper return. The IRS issues more than 9 out of 10 refunds in less than 21 days. Where's My Refund? will give you a personalized refund date as soon as the IRS processes your tax return and approves your refund. Before you call this automated hotline, have your 2013 tax return handy so you can enter your social security number, your filing status, and the exact whole dollar amount of your refund. The IRS updates Where's My Refund? every 24 hours, usually overnight, so you only need to check once a day. Note, the above information is for our automated hotline. Our live phone and walk-in assistors can research the status of your refund only if it's been more than 6 weeks since you mailed your paper return.

- Call the Amended Return Hotline, 1-866-464-2050, to check the status of your amended return. You can generally expect your amended return to be processed up to 12 weeks from the date we receive it. It can take up to 3 weeks from the date you mailed it to show up in our system.
- Call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676) to order current-year forms, instructions, publications, and prior-year forms and instructions (limited to 5 years). You should receive your order within 10 business days.
- Call TeleTax, 1-800-829-4477, to listen to pre-recorded messages covering general and business tax information. If, between January and April 15, you still have questions about the Form 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ (like filing requirements, dependents, credits, Schedule D, pensions and IRAs or self-employment taxes), call 1-800-829-1040.
- Call using TTY/TDD equipment, 1-800-829-4059 to ask tax questions or order forms and publications. The TTY/TDD telephone number is for people who are deaf, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability. These individuals can also contact the IRS through relay services such as the Federal Relay Service.

Walk-in. You can find a selection of forms, publications and services — in-person.

- Products. You can walk in to some post offices, libraries, and IRS offices to pick up certain forms, instructions, and publications. Some IRS offices, libraries, and city and county government offices have a collection of products available to photocopy from reproducible proofs.
- Services. You can walk in to your local TAC for face-to-face tax help. An employee can answer questions about your tax account or help you set up a payment plan. Before visiting, use the Office Locator tool on IRS.gov, or choose the Contact Us option on the IRS2Go app and search Local Offices for days and hours of operation, and services provided.

Mail. You can send your order for forms, instructions, and publications to the address below. You should receive a response within 10 business days after your request is received.

Death of a Taxpayer

If a taxpayer died before filing a return for 2013, the taxpayer's personal representative may have to file and sign a return for that taxpayer. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator, or anyone who is in charge of the deceased taxpaver's property. If the deceased taxpayer did not have to file a return but had tax withheld, a return must be filed to get a refund. The person who files the return must enter "Deceased," the deceased taxpayer's name, and the date of death across the top of the return. If this information is not provided, it may delay the processing of the return.

The personal representative should promptly notify all payers of income, including financial institutions, of the taxpayer's death. This will ensure the proper reporting of income earned by the taxpayer's estate or heirs. A deceased taxpayer's SSN or ITIN should not be used for tax years after the year of death, except for estate tax return purposes.

Claiming a refund for a deceased taxpayer. If you are a court-appointed representative, file Form 1040NR-EZ for the decedent and include a copy of the certificate that shows your appointment. All other filers requesting the deceased taxpayer's refund, including the deceased taxpayer's spouse, must file the return and attach Form 1310.

For more details, use TeleTax topic 356 or see Pub. 559, Survivors, Executors, and Administrators.

How Do You Make a Gift to Reduce Debt Held By the Public?

If you wish to do so, make a check payable to "Bureau of the Fiscal Service." You can send it to:

> Bureau of the Fiscal Service Department G, P.O. Box 2188, Parkersburg, WV 26106-2188 U.S.A.

Or you can enclose the check with your income tax return when you file. Do not add your gift to any tax you may owe. See the instructions for line 25, earlier, for details on how to pay any tax you owe.

Go to www.publicdebt.treas.gov/ for information on how to make this type of gift online.

You may be able to deduct this gift on your 2014 tax return as a charitable contribution. But you must file Form 1040NR to do so.

Calling the IRS

If you cannot find the answer to your question in these instructions or online, please call us for assistance. See Making the Call, later. If you are in the United States, you will not be charged for the call unless your phone company charges you for toll-free calls. Our normal hours of operation are Monday through Friday from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. local time. Assistance provided to callers from Alaska and Hawaii will be based on the hours of operation in the Pacific time zone. Callers from Puerto Rico will receive assistance from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. local time.

If you want to check the status of your 2013 refund, see Refund Information, earlier.

Before You Call

IRS representatives care about the quality of the service provided to you, our customer. You can help us provide accurate, complete answers to your questions by having the following information available.

- The tax form, schedule, or notice to which your question relates.
- The facts about your particular situation. The answer to the same question often varies from one taxpayer to another because of differences in their age, income, whether they can be claimed as a dependent, etc.
- The name of any IRS publication or other source of information that you used to look for the answer.

To maintain your account security, you may be asked for the following information, which you also should have available.

- Your social security number or individual taxpayer identification number.
- The amount of refund and filing status shown on your tax return.
- The "Caller ID Number" shown at the top of any notice you received.
- Your personal identification number (PIN) if you have one.
- Your date of birth.

- The numbers in your street address.
- Your ZIP code.

If you are asking for an installment agreement to pay your tax, you will be asked for the highest amount you can pay each month and the date on which you can pay it.

Evaluation of services provided. The IRS uses several methods to evaluate our telephone service. One method is to record telephone calls for quality purposes only. A random sample of recorded calls is selected for review through the quality assurance process. Other methods include listening to live calls in progress and random selection of customers for participation in a customer satisfaction survey.

Making the Call

If you are in the United States call 1-800-829-1040. People who are deaf or hard of hearing, or have a speech disability and who have access to TTY/TTD equipment can call 1-800-829-4059.

People who are deaf or hard of hearing, or have a speech disability can also contact the IRS through relav services such as the Federal Relay Service at www.gsa.gov/fedrelay. Our menu allows you to speak your responses or use your keypad to select a menu option. After receiving your menu selection, the system will direct your call to the appropriate assistance.

If you are outside the United States, call 267-941-1000 (English-speaking only). This number is not toll-free.

Before You Hang Up

If you do not fully understand the answer you receive, or you feel our representative may not fully understand your question, our representative needs to know this. He or she will be happy to take additional time to be sure your question is answered fully.

By law, you are responsible for paying your share of federal income tax. If we should make an error in answering your question, you are still responsible for the payment of the correct tax. Should this occur, however, you will not be charged any penalty.

Disclosure, Privacy Act, and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

We ask for the information on this form to carry out U.S. Internal Revenue laws. Sections 6001, 6011, 6012(a) and their regulations require that you give us the information. We need it to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax. Section 6109 requires you to provide your identifying number. If you do not file a return, do not provide requested information, or provide fraudulent information, you may be subject to penalties and criminal prosecution. We may also have to disallow the exemptions, exclusions, credits, deductions, or adjustments. This could make the tax higher or delay any refund. Interest may also be charged.

This notice applies to all papers you file with us and to any questions we need to ask to complete, correct, or process your return, or to figure and collect your tax, interest, or penalties.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue

Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by section 6103. However, section 6103 allows or requires the IRS to disclose the information to others. For example, we may disclose your tax information to the Department of Justice to enforce the tax laws, both civil and criminal, and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths or possessions to carry out their tax laws. We may disclose this information to the Department of Treasury and contractors for tax administration purposes; and to other persons as necessary to obtain information to determine the amount of or to collect the tax you owe. We may disclose this information to the Comptroller General of the United States to permit review of the IRS. We may disclose this information to Committees of Congress; federal, state, and local child support agencies; and to other federal agencies for purposes of determining entitlement for benefits or the eligibility for and the repayment of loans. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

Keep this notice with your records. It may help you if we ask for other information. If you have any questions about the rules for filing and giving information, call or visit any IRS office.

We welcome comments on forms. If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. You can send us comments from www.irs.gov/ formspubs. Select "Comment on Tax Forms and Publications" under "More Information." Or you can send your comments to Internal Revenue Service, Tax Forms and Publications, 1111 Constitution Ave. NW, IR-6526, Washington, DC 20224. Do not send your return to this address. Instead, see Where To File, earlier.

Although we cannot respond individually to each comment received, we do appreciate your feedback and will consider your comments as we revise our tax forms and instructions.

Estimates of taxpayer burden. The table below shows burden estimates as of November 2013, for taxpayers filing a 2013 Form 1040NR-EZ tax return.

	Average Time Burden (Hours)	Average Cost*
1040NR-EZ	6	$50

* Dollars rounded to the nearest $10.

Reported time and cost burdens are national averages and do not necessarily reflect a "typical" case. The estimated average time burden for all taxpayers filing a Form 1040NR-EZ is 6 hours, with an average cost of $50 per return. This average includes all related forms and schedules, across all preparation methods and taxpayer activities. There may be significant variation in taxpayer activity within this estimate.

Out-of-pocket costs include any expenses incurred by taxpayers to prepare and submit their tax returns. Examples include tax return preparation and submission fees, postage and photocopying costs, and tax preparation software costs. Tax preparation fees vary widely depending on the tax situation of the taxpayer, the type of professional preparer, and the geographic area.

If you have comments concerning the time and cost estimates below, you can contact us at either one of the addresses shown under We welcome comments on forms, earlier.

The Taxpayer Advocate Service Is Here To Help You

What is the Taxpayer Advocate Service?

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) is your voice at the IRS. As an independent organization within the IRS, our job is to ensure that every taxpayer is treated fairly and that you know and understand your rights.

What can TAS do for you?

We can offer you free help with IRS problems that you can't resolve on your own. We know the tax process can be confusing, but the worst thing you can do is nothing at all! TAS can help if you can't resolve your tax problem and:

- Your problem is causing financial difficulties for you, your family, or your business.
- You face (or your business is facing) an immediate threat of adverse action.
- · You've tried repeatedly to contact the IRS but no one has responded, or the IRS hasn't responded by the date promised.

If you qualify for our help, you'll be assigned to one advocate who'll be with you at every turn and will do everything possible to resolve your problem.

- TAS is an independent organization within the IRS. Our advocates know how to work with the IRS to get your problems resolved.
- Our services are free and tailored to meet your needs.
- We have offices in every state, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.
- Our online tax toolkit can help you understand your rights and options in dealing with the IRS. Go to www.taxpayeradvocate.irs.gov/Individuals/Get-Tax-
  Help.

How can you reach us?

If you think TAS can help you, call your local advocate, whose number is in your phone book and on our website at www.irs.gov/advocate. You can also call us toll-free at 1-877-777-4778.

How else does TAS help taxpayers?

TAS also works to resolve large-scale, systemic problems that affect many taxpayers. If you know of one of these broad issues, please report it to us through our Systemic Advocacy Management System at www.irs.gov/sams.

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics Help Taxpayers

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITCs) are independent from the IRS. Some serve individuals whose income is below a certain level and who need to resolve a tax problem. These clinics provide professional representation before the IRS or in court on audits, appeals, tax collection disputes, and other issues for free or for a small fee. Some clinics provide information about taxpayer rights and responsibilities in many different languages for individuals who speak English as a second language. For more information, and to find a clinic near you, read the LITC page on www.irs.gov/litc or IRS Publication 4134, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic List. You can also get this publication at your local IRS office or by calling 1-800-829-3676.

Suggestions for Improving the IRS

Taxpayer Advocacy Panel

Have a suggestion for improving the IRS and do not know who to contact? The Taxpayer Advocacy Panel (TAP) is a diverse group of citizen volunteers who listen to taxpayers, identify taxpayers' issues, and make suggestions for improving IRS service and customer satisfaction. The panel is demographically and geographically diverse, with at least one member from each state, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico. Contact TAP at www.improveirs.org or 1-888-912-1227 (toll-free).

The IRS Mission

Provide America's taxpayers top quality service by helping them understand and meet their tax responsibilities and by applying the tax law with integrity and fairness to all
