TERMS OF CLEARANCE: Under this approval, DCIs must be approved by high-level management (Deputy Division Director or above). Before EPA may issue a specific DCI under this approval, EPA must provide OMB with prior notice and opportunity to review the DCI. The information sent to OMB shall include basic information on the pesticide, the total number of respondents, the planned schedule for issuance and data submission, a list of required studies, the practical utility of the data, and an estimate of the paperwork burden and testing costs. OMB may request that EPA provide additional information as necessary to explain the basis for the DCI. OMB expects review of specific planned DCIs will be prompt (15 working days after OMB confirms receipt), although OMB will notify EPA if there are issues that require additional time for review. OMB may also request that EPA issue a FR notice seeking public comment on the DCI. Based on its review, OMB may determine that any one or more requested DCIs do not comply with the requirements in 5 CFR
