Semiannual Unified Regulatory Agenda

AGENCY: Social Security Administration.

ACTION: Semiannual regulatory agenda.

SUMMARY: We are publishing our fall 2023 regulatory agenda pursuant to Executive Order 12866, "Regulatory Planning and Review," 58 FR 51735 (1993), with particular adherence to the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. sections 601 to 612.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Please direct all general comments and inquiries to the Office of Legislation and Congressional Affairs, Regulations and Reports Clearance Staff, Mail Stop 3253 Altmeyer, 6401 Security Blvd, Baltimore MD 21235. For comments on specific regulatory actions, please contact the person identified as the point of contact for that action.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The information provided in the Unified Agenda (Agenda) previews the rulemaking activities that we expect to undertake in the immediate future. The Agenda focuses primarily on those actions expected to result in publication of Advance Notices of Proposed Rulemaking, Notices of Proposed Rulemaking, or Final Rules within the next 12 months. At this time, we have no regulatory actions that are likely to have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.

A fully searchable e-Agenda is available for viewing in its entirety at www.reginfo.gov. Agenda information is also available at www.regulations.gov, the government-wide website for submission of comments on proposed regulations. Our Fall 2023 agenda follows.

Dated: August 17, 2023.
