Re: Supplemental Comment to CDC's Paperwork Reduction Act Review (OMB Control No. 0920-1181)

To Whom It May Concern:

Airlines for America ("A4A"), on behalf of its members,¹ appreciates the opportunity to provide comments regarding the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention ("CDC") Agency Forms Undergoing Paperwork Reduction Act Review ("PRA Review") for the Airline and Traveler Information Collection: Domestic Manifests and the Passenger Locator Form (42 CFR parts 70 and 71).²

To provide comprehensive and invaluable input for the CDC's information collection, we respectfully requested a copy of publicly available information and documents related to the PRA Review.³ The CDC did not provide the requested information.

Accordingly, as we submitted in our earlier comments,⁴ we again submit that the public has not had a meaningful opportunity to comment on the information collection, the PRA Review fails to meet the Paperwork Reduction Act standards, and the CDC must consider and adopt the use of its own contact information collection website for the purposes of the information collection.

Respectfully submitted,

Graham Keithley
Assistant General Counsel
AIRLINES FOR AMERICA
