Comment

Hello,

I am writing to express an opposition to the proposed Large Civil Aircraft Dispute Portal. I understand that during the last review period that the number excess of comments received made it difficult, or impossible, to review in a timely manner. After reviewing the new ICR related to the Large Civil Aircraft Dispute Portal, it seems too cumbersome and time consuming to be able to expect an accurate comment response from the general public. I would recommend limiting the portal to 5 multiple choice questions maximum and allowing for a comment box at the end to express any other comments or concerns over the Large Civil Aircraft Dispute. Thank you for your consideration.
