To whom it may concern,

Please DO NOT CHANGE the current process for submitting comments to the USTR regarding the Large Civil Aircraft Dispute, which affects tariffs on many thousands of imported goods. These pending tariffs will devastate our economy which is already teetering. It is essential that people are able to submit their arguments to these tariffs that will have such a huge negative impact on the American people without the added hassle that is being proposed.

The tariffs that are being discussed would unfairly punish people that have no responsibility in this dispute.
