Comment

Please note there are thousands of US citizens employed in the food and wine sector who would like to comment AGAINST the tariffs involving LARGE CIVIL AIRCRAFT DISPUTE and this 'new' portal will substantially affect the ability to comment. I surmise this change is requested specifically to dissuade public comment by making it significantly more time consuming to a US citizen. I believe making a portal lengthy and using language that the average American citizen cannot understand without a law degree is deceptive at best.

I ask you to deny the request to change the portal to continue to provide by LAW a citizens right to speak their mind regarding laws the US Gov put into action.
