Exception reporting langauge for first quarter for CY 2020	2021 60 day Document	Type of Change	ATB reporting now congruent with other Part C Reporting	Burden Change Decrease
Data Element B: If yes, list the number of specialty providers that offer Additional Telehealth benefits.	Data Element B: If yes, enter the number of Medicare Part B provider speciality types for which Additional Telehealth Benefits are covered. [NUM]	Clarification	To ensure Additional Telehealth benefits reported in this section should only include benefits as defined in as defined in § 422.135.	None
Data Element C: Identify the telehealth specialty offered from the providers listed in Element B. [text]	Data Element C: List the Medicare Part B provider speciality types in Element B. Primary Care Allergy and Immunology Cardiology Dermatology Endocrinology ENT/Otolaryngology Gynecology, OB/GYN Infectious Diseases Nephrology Neurology Other [Enter Code]	Clarification	Improve ease and accuracy of data collection with the use of specialty codes in a drop down menu as opposed to the exclusive use of free text for reporting.
Data Element D: List the County and State for each Telehealth Specialty listed above. If a Telehealth provider serves enrollees from multiple counties in the service area, then count the provider multiple times with the appropriate state and county. [text]	Deleted	Update	Improve accuracy of reporting.	Decrease
Data Element E: Total number of contracted Telehealth Providers per contract. Enter	Deleted	Update	Improve accuracy of reporting.	Decrease
Data Element F: Total number of contracted in-person providers for this specialty in this particular county and State. Enter	Deleted	Update	Improve accuracy of reporting.	Decrease

Data Element G:How many of these contracted providers offer both in-person and Telehealth within the same contract?	Deleted	Update	Improve accuracy of reporting.	Decrease
Enter				