

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 11/02/2020 05:54 PM

Comments Received :

It would be great if we could correct name and birth-date errors from previous years and not get validation errors. When in the portal, it would be very convenient if after we've submitted the data and have seen the points we've received (but before signatures have been applied) to be able to go back and fix errors that may have been made while reporting.

The estimate of burden may not be the most accurate.