I enjoy a good working relationship with my SBDC. I don't want to be solicited by SBA or its agents. My relationship with my SBDC is very personal and I feel good about my decisions and the guidance I'm receiving.

Did the SBA conduct a Privacy Impact Assessment? Why isn't that mentioned? How did it deal with the privacy requirements of the Small Business Act?

The SBA can't protect my information, there are too many examples of government agencies failing to protect personal information. Also, this suggests more dissemination of personal information which can only lead to less security. The SBA should make its request clearer and its intent clearer. They don't need my contact information to meet any statutory requirements, in fact Congress doesn't want the SBDCs to give my information to SBA or anyone else.

This information collection is unnecessary. The SBA has no need for my contact information in order to do its job. My personal information is not a performance indicator.
