

Author Full Name : Donna Firebaugh

Received Date : 11/12/2020 09:13 AM

Comments Received :

I rely on my local SBA office to protect my personal and business information I provide. I do not like to see confusing language which could be misleading, the SBA job is to help small businesses continue to be successful without worry of any information shared to be public knowledge or to be harassed by services that was not clearly defined in the agreements.