Dear Mary B. Jones:

The Florida Department of Revenue, Child Support Program supports the Office of Child Support Enforcement's request for a 3-year extension of the above-referenced information comparison. The insurance claims information made available by the federal office assists the state in collecting past-due support and is a significant benefit to Florida families. In FFY 19-20, Florida used this information to collect over $5 million in past due support. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Ann Coffin
Director
Child Support Program
