

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 11/17/2020 10:50 AM

Comments Received :

As a Director of a SBDC, I find the need to provide client confidentiality at the highest priority. This ensures that all business owners feel comfortable utilizing our services without the fear of their information being used against their wishes. Keeping client confidentiality is paramount to offering and receiving the best business advice. Like a lawyer or a counselor, this allows for the client to be open.