

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 11/23/2020 10:25 PM

Comments Received :

I think it's important to keep client information as confidential as possible, with as little 'outside' intervention as possible. Business owners are comforted in knowing that their information isn't being shared from the SBDC with any other organizations. I feel as though opening up the option for client info to be shared, will deter businesses from seeking out help from the SBDC.