General Comment

President Trump told Americans, "Don't let coronavirus dominate you." Which explains why Trump caught Covid-19, as did at least twenty of his associates.

And now just ten days before the election, FOUR of Mike Pence's aides have caught Covid-19. These include Marc Short, Marty Obst and two other aides. So is Pence going to quarantine himself? Of course not:

"While Vice President Pence is considered a close contact with Mr. Short, in consultation with the White House Medical Unit, the Vice President will maintain his schedule in accordance with the CDC guidelines for essential personnel" - Devin O'Malley

Got that? It's okay if Pence puts others at risk, because it's "essential" that he shows up a rallies to spread disinformation about the pandemic.
