

Author Full Name : Louis Ventre

Received Date : 12/31/2020 01:38 PM

Comments Received :

The USPTO does not realistically consider attorney time needed to protect the client's private address information. Why can't the USPTO simply rely on the attorney's U.S. address information. The Attorney has ethical obligations to protect the client in all related matters and the Attorney's address should be sufficient. Alternatively a PO Box address for the client should be allowed to enable the client to keep his actual home address info private without having to go through time consuming petitions.