the american people are not wanting more ilegal immigrants here at all. 77% of them want them all to go home to their own country . they represent a leaching group who cost the working people of america trillinos of dollars every single year. i see no reason to allow a change in status for this alleged abused person. some of these stories of abuse are made up and untrue. all of them will be better off in their own country than here where ameican do not want foreigners since we havd tens of millions of them here already on teh welfare rolls, colelcting throught they never put a penny into the funds.
