General Comment

the cdc has propagandized itself into oblivion as far as my respect for this agency goes. i do not think dr fauci is mr science. i thnk science is an amalgamation of different specialties that goes into disease and injury judgment not just one demented man. sometime people have been in jobs too long. sometime they think they are irreplaceable. that is never true. the fact is we need a new cdc. what is going on at this agency certainly shows up untrained dishonest people trying to hurt america and the american people with unjustified pronouncements. we are being hurt by our american dollars gonig to wuhan china. we do nto want any of our american tax dollars going to wuhan china. we do not think america needs to be beholden to china for anything. we ca make it better. to send our dollars over there is to foment their war against us. whoever ia making judgments like that is demented. we need a real change of guard at this agency. it is downhill. it has gone downhil. this comment is for teh public record. please receipt. jean upbliee
