RE: Federal Register notice of January 25, 2022, for the Bureau of Labor Statistics' Consumer Expenditure Surveys: The Quarterly Interview and the Diary (OMB Number: 1220-0050)

Dear Ms. Kincaid:

The Bureau of Economic Analysis (BEA) strongly supports the updating and continued collection of data for the Bureau of Labor Statistics' (BLS) Consumer Expenditure (CE) Surveys. This important survey is our only data source for several key components of BEA's economic statistics.

Information from the CE surveys is critical in preparing the national income and product accounts (NIPA's), the input-output (I-O) accounts, the travel and tourism satellite accounts, and the new outdoor recreation satellite account. Also, beginning with the 2013 Benchmark Revision, BEA uses the CE Surveys' data to estimate the diesel fuel portion of the personal consumption expenditure (PCE) gasoline and other motor fuel estimate. Data from the CE surveys is also used for comparison purposes such as, during the 2012 NIPA/Benchmark I-O reconciliation these data were used as a check on final demand for personal consumption expenditures. A list of items used by BEA is attached.

The changes currently proposed for these forms do not substantially affect our use of these data and we support the efforts to improve the survey and reduce the respondent burden.

Please keep BEA informed about any future modifications to these forms. We are particularly interested in any modifications proposed during the forms' approval process that would substantially affect our use of these data. For additional information, please contact Tiffany Burrell, Source Data Coordinator, at 301-278-9618 or by e-mail at Tiffany.Burrell@bea.gov. Should you need assistance in justifying these forms to the Office of Management and Budget, please do not hesitate to contact BEA.

Sincerely,

Dennis J. Fixler
Chief Economist
