General Comment

I think you need to just stop with the pretense that our votes count. The 81 million that voted for mr poopy pants was the straw that broke the camels back. The whole government is corrupt. We the people have had enough. We are tired of paying 40% and more of our hard earned paychecks to pay for your paychecks! We are sick and tired of paying for illegal immigrants to live in houses, eat free food, go to free colleges, drive free cars, and have free medical insurance. They should be treated like us! We are tired of the lies. My vote does not count. The 81 million votes did not count. Each and every agency in this corrupt system needs to be disbanded. You people should be ashamed.
