2 of 5 Instructions

Part A

- Complete Part A for everyone who lives in your household for at least one month each year, including children age 18 or under. Make sure to include infants, as well as any children who may live part-time in your household (e.g., college students, shared custody arrangements).
- Common definitions:
 - Dependents: A dependent is a qualifying child under age 19 (or under 24 if a full-time student) or qualifying relative who makes less than $4,300 per year who is claimed on the tax return of a taxpayer who provides more than half of their annual support.
 - Buying and preparing food together: Adults who live in the same house and purchase and prepare their food together, or children who live in the house with an adult who purchases and prepares their food.
 - Sharing expenses: Adults who live in the same house and share the cost of most purchases, or children who live in the house with an adult who supports them.

Part B

- Complete Part B for everyone who lives in your household for at least one month each year and has any source of earned or unearned income. Make sure to include yourself, as well as children age 18 or under with part time jobs. If an individual has no earned or unearned income, please enter "0."
- Common definitions:
 - Earned income includes any wages that come from hourly or salaried employment, as well as self-employment.
 - Unearned income includes child support payments, unemployment benefits, other social service benefits, interest payments, capital gains, inheritance, and dividends.
