

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 06/02/2022 05:44 PM

Comments Received :

Removing the term "alien" removes the noun, that is the thing in question. Leaving only adjectives "resident" or "nonresident" obscures what is being asked: the person's actual status. All students are presumably residents.

Adding genders beyond male/female is either unnecessarily intrusive to those born inter-sex or is presenting as objective fact the subjective impressions of people. Either way, it is not scientific but rather an ideological approach to the issue.