

Author Full Name : Andrew Reddington

Received Date : 08/26/2022 09:23 AM

Comments Received :

No changes need to be made to the FAFSA application with respect to gender, sex, race, ethnicity, or other questions requesting demographic information from the applicant. The government should continue to use the information in which the applicant is determined by biological assignment (be that gender or race) and not information based on conjecture, transitory perceptions, and/or other non-biological assignment.