

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 09/13/2022 08:36 PM

Comments Received :

The NFA is enforceable since it falls under US tax code and is therefore not a firearm registration, e.g., pay $200 and receive approval for the stamp. If this regulation removes the tax implications of the process, then the basis to retain records of tax payers goes away, and you are left with nothing but an illegal national firearms registration.