

Author Full Name : Mary Nimmo

Received Date : 10/05/2022 09:22 AM

Comments Received :

I vote against doing this data collection every year.

I feel doing this every other school year is more productive and accurate. This is a very time consuming process to collect the data. Us being such a large school district with 14 schools it is very difficult to receive the information needed from the schools and report said information. Knowing they have two years to collect the data makes it more efficient and accurate