

Name: _____

Good morning/afternoon/evening. My name is _____, and I work for the SIPI Office of Analytics and Outcomes. We are required by our accreditor (the Higher Learning Commission) to measure job placement rates for our graduates, and would like to ask you a few quick and simple questions. This survey shouldn't take more than five minutes. The results will be reported in aggregate (or overall) tables, to the SIPI Leadership, SIPI Board of Regents, and the Higher Learning Commission, and no individual or personal level data will be reported. The data will also help SIPI determine how to better assist its students in finding work after graduation. This survey is confidential, and your privacy is important to us.

After graduating from SIPI, how long did it take for you to find your job?

- _____ No time. I kept a job that I already had while attending SIPI.
 _____ Less than 3 months.
 _____ Between 3 and 6 months.
 _____ Over 6 months.
 _____ Didn't find work.

If you found a job, was it related directly to your degree or certificate major?

_____ No

- _____ Full time
_____ Part time

Was the job related to serving the Native American community? That is, work for a tribe, tribal-owned business, or business that provides services specifically to the Native American community (such as the Indian Programs office at the Albuquerque Public Schools).

- _____ Yes
_____ No

Did SIPI provide any guidance or assistance in helping you find your first job after graduation (such as job fairs, career counseling, or assistance from faculty)? If so, what kind of assistance did SIPI provide that you found helpful?

What could SIPI do to better assist its graduates in preparing for the workplace?

Please rate your satisfaction on a scale of 1 to 10, where 1 = “not satisfied at all” and 10 = “most satisfied”:
____ How satisfied are you with how well the SIPI educational experience prepared you for the workplace?

What is the name of the business that hired you after graduation?

What was your starting salary or hourly wage for the first job you got after graduation?

Thank you for your time. The information you provided is important in helping us understand how well we are preparing students for the workplace, and to learn how we can better help our students find jobs that match their majors.
