

Author Full Name : Tricia RiemReceived Date : 12/29/2022 09:38 PMComments Received :

We live in Canada within an hour's drive of the US border. We would regularly drive to the US for travel, groceries, gas, to pick up shipped parcels, veterinary care, entertainment, etc. We want to spend our money in the US because everything is cheaper and different. But we cannot cross the border because we are unvaccinated, even though all fully vaccinated foreigners carry and spread Covid 19. Keeping borders closed to unvaccinated no longer makes any medical sense.