

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 12/29/2022 11:21 PM

Comments Received :

The data has already shown COVID-19 vaccination can't protect a person from being infected and spreading virus. COVID-19 vaccination proof requirement for entering US has nothing to do with mitigating infection, it should not be extended. If it is required for noncitizen, nonimmigrant air passengers, those crossing US southern borders shall be required for COVID-19 vaccination proof too.