

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 12/30/2022 02:38 AMComments Received :

Covid vaccine requirements for non-citizens wishing to cross the border do nothing to reduce transmission. After the CDC recommended that laws not discriminate between vaccinated and non-vaccinated due to there being no difference in transmission levels, we can only deduce that these laws keep families separate unnecessarily. Drop the requirements like ever other major country, and stop arbitrarily separating families.