General Comment

those who cannot speak english in the usa are primarily illegal immigrants who should not be eligible for any money at all from snap or nap. they should be encouraged to go back to their own country to seek food for themselves. americans do not owe them anything since they have sneaked into this country illegally just because they want what we have. that is no good reason for sneaking into a country without permission. all benefits should be cut to these people. they should not be allowed to drain the usa tax dollars dry as biden seems to think. biden is so senile he cant understand protecting our own contry. according to the constituion we have a duty and responsibility to protect our own country. biden is not conforming to that constitutional duty.
