Hello,

Unfortunately, there was an error on your website which prevented me from posting a comment. The comment was timely submitted today, March 14, 2023. I have included a screenshot demonstrating this. Please include my comment below in any official record on this matter.

Sincerely,

Evan Inman

Comment:

Please exercise the necessary duty of care such that more public input is gathered and the recent crisis facing bald Eagles in Oklahoma can be addressed with the gravity deserved and included in some way on any forms that are issued which would measure the impact of proposed construction and power distribution projects on the Eagles of Oklahoma. I ask that the comment period is extended for 60 days prior to privileging industry over the symbol of our democracy.
