

Title: Revolutionary War Pension File Transcription Project

Introduction:

Thank you for helping unlock history!

The National Archives Citizen Archivist program and the National Park Service are collaborating to transcribe Case Files of Pension and Bounty-Land Warrant Applications Based on Revolutionary War Service, ca. 1800 - ca. 1912 in celebration of the 250th anniversary of American Independence.

Did you know that military pension files may contain valuable details about family history? Within these rich records, you may find evidence of letters, diaries, frakturs, embroidered family trees, family bibles, or even photographs. We are looking for your help to unlock these details.

As you transcribe these records, did you find a surprising or intriguing story? An unexpected artifact? Let us know in this survey!

1. Please provide your name and/or National Archives Catalog username: [text box]
2. Are you a volunteer who came to this project via the National Park Service? Yes / No
3. What is the URL of the record you would like to share? [text box]
4. Page number(s) for the part of the transcription you wish to share: [text box]
5. Please share the relevant part of the transcription, or a description of the record you wish to share: [text box]
6. Tell us why you find this interesting, or any other details you would like to share: [text box]
7. May we contact you if we have any questions? Yes / No
8. If yes, please share your email address: [text box]