

Author Full Name : Craig SchultzReceived Date : 06/13/2023 11:54 AMComments Received :

Any information collection request by ED stemming from the removal of FWS income from FAFSA should be limited to the minimum data required to calculate the applicant's student aid index (SAI) and determine their eligibility for certain Title IV aid. The proposed ICR includes numerous superfluous data points and represents an undue burden on already strained financial aid departments. If ED persists with the proposed ICR, redundant data should be removed from FISAP.