General Guidelines

- The DEADLINE for proposals is October 31, 11:59 p.m. ET, U.S.
- The NIDA International Program encourages plenary session submissions that align with/are guided by NIDA's 2022-2026 Strategic Plan.
- The Forum is an in-person meeting only. All presenters must be available to attend and participate in person. This meeting will not have a virtual component and recorded presentations will not be accepted. Session chairs should ensure that all presenters in their session are committed to the in-person participation requirement.
- Travel awards for presenters are limited and we cannot guarantee the availability of financial support for accepted plenary session proposals.
- Session chairs will submit an overall abstract with a maximum of 400 words.
- Sessions may be 30, 60, or 90 minutes in length, inclusive of a Q&A period.
- The maximum number of presenters in each session is:
 - 30 minutes – one presenter
 - 60 minutes – three presenters
 - 90 minutes – four presenters, one moderator
- Once a session is accepted, changes to the presenters must be approved by the NIDA International Program.
- Selection decisions will be announced via email to the submitting chair/organizer by early December 2023.
- If you have any questions about the meeting or this plenary proposal submission form, please email ip@nida.nih.gov.
