Consent to be contacted (required)

It is okay for NSF to contact me to participate in user research. I understand that my email address will be used to contact me to schedule a session and will not be shared with any third parties or used for any other purpose. I may withdraw my consent at any time.

[checkbox] I consent and agree to the above statement.

Email address for scheduling (required) [text field]

[help text] Please provide a valid email address.

Your name (required) [text field]

[help text] Your full name.

Select one response for the length of session you're interested in (required) [radio buttons]

- 30-minute session
- 60-minute session
- 30 or 60-minute session (no preference)

Your occupation (optional) [text field]

[help text] Telling us your occupation in advance helps us estimate how broadly our opt-in testers represent the U.S. population.

Your employer (optional) [text field]

[help text] Telling us your employer in advance helps us know if we are receiving opt-ins from participants with a wide range of backgrounds, from academia to nonprofits, K-12 education, and industry.

Grant application experience (optional) [text field]

[help text] Briefly describe your experience, if any, in applying for funding to support your work.

Assistive technology or accessibility accommodations (optional) [text field]

Do you use assistive technology? NSF is seeking input from users of assistive technology on the design and usability of NSF.gov. If you use this technology, providing us with these details will help us prepare for your session. Please also let us know if you need any accommodations for participating in a research session. This information is completely voluntary.

Visit frequency (optional) [text field]

[help text] How often do you visit and use NSF.gov? Examples might include never/this is my first time, about once a year, weekly, daily for short periods of time, etc.
