

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 12/11/2023 04:55 PM

Comments Received :

On the bottom of page 4, this draft common form states: The attestation form, background, and instructions are subject to change and may be modified.

How can a common form approved by OMB (OIRA) be summarily modified? Isn't the point of a control number being issued, to state the facts and instructions as they must be followed? Will the public be able to comment again on any proposed changes? This seems problematic.