	USCIS-2006-0042-0070	if the person gets a dfercision that they are not to be admitted to the usa one time,t hat hould be enough. they shouldnot be allowed to keep trying over and over and over again. too many tries. one denial should be enough. this system is costing american taxpayers far far too much money to run. we h ave a plethora of 20 million illegal imigrants here alerady. we are certainly dealing with a surfeit of illegal or legal immigrants. there is no scarcity. we can be extremely picky in pickiugn out who we want to live here., we have allowed alot of scum, criminals, drugs to come here to hurt and kill american citizens. the us govt has allowed alot of criminals, druggies, people who will tear this country down to be in this country, they are not people who come here to live a decent life. they come her to rip off americans. there is no reason to allow this paper or document to those who are denied. shut it down. stop the waste of american tax dollars.
