2023 Ed Games Expo Survey (Developers and Researchers) ⤸

Thank you for participating at the ED Games Expo at the John F. Kennedy Center REACH in 2023. Activities you may have attended include:

> September 20--ED Games Expo for the Public from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.
> September 21--ED Games Expo IES Day and Office Hours

Please complete the following survey to assist us in making improvements in the future based on your feedback about your experience.

Your participation is voluntary and all responses are anonymous.

1. Are you a Developer and/or Researcher who presented at the ED Games Expo on September 20, 2023?

   ○ Yes

   ○ No

2. During the 2023 ED Games Expo on September 20th, how much useful feedback did you receive from students and individuals who interacted with your education technology?

   ○ None at all

   ○ A little

   ○ Some

   ○ A lot

3. During the 2023 Expo Games Expo on September 20, did you meet any representatives from stakeholder organizations (e.g., teachers and school decision makers, funders, potential commercialization partners) who provided feedback, guidance, or support to help build your capacity to commercialize (distribute and sustain) the education technology you developed with support from the SBIR and government programs?

   ○ Yes

   ○ No

4. Would you be interested in presenting/exhibiting in the next ED Games Expo?

○ Yes

○ No

5. Please provide any comments on your experience exhibiting at the ED Games Expo on September 20, and on how it could be a more valuable experience next time.

[   ]

6. Did you attend of the ED Games Expo IES Day and Office Hours on September 21, 2023?

○ Yes

○ No

7. Did the sessions during IES Day or Office Hours provide information that you found useful for improving education research or commercialization of education technology?

○ Yes

○ No

8. Did the IES Day or Office Hours session provide the opportunity for you to meet government representatives to learn about funding opportunities through the SBIR program and other government programs, as well as other initiatives?

○ Yes

○ No

9. Did you or will you in the future apply for funding to an SBIR program or a government program that you met with at the IES Day or Office Hours?

○ Yes

○ No

10. Did the IES Day or the Office Hours sessions provide the opportunity for you to meet education researchers or education organizations that provided useful information or with whom you may partner in future proposals or work?

○ Yes

○ No

11. Would you be interested in attending an IES Day or the Office Hours at the next ED Games Expo?

○ Yes

○ No

12. Please provide any comments on your experience at the IES Day and Office Hours, and how it could be a more valuable experience next time.