

Author Full Name : Bethann Grella

Received Date : 04/11/2024 05:35 AM

Comments Received :

The Treasury should devote its resources to the actual overseas money launders. FBAR should exclude Americans abroad to reduce the burden on law-abiding citizens living overseas.

The Department of Treasury should work with Congress to bring the US into line with the entire rest of the world in the way it taxes its expats. They need to reduce the burden on law-abiding Americans living overseas. At a minimum, this could be achieved by simplifying filing requirements and increasing the filing threshold.