

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 04/27/2024 12:49 PM

Comments Received :

I believe FBAR is an undue burden for innocent US tax payers who live abroad.

Most banks in Austria or Germany do not accept US citizens as clients because of the US reporting overhead. We Americans have to bank with the few large institutions who take high fees.

The same is true for brokerage accounts - only large or private banks will accept us Americans as clients and charge outrageous fees.

Please stop the discrimination and go after the real criminals!