

Author Full Name : Robert Paulson

Received Date : 04/29/2024 09:48 AM

Comments Received :

As an American citizen living in Germany, I think the FBAR should exclude us normal citizens abroad in order that the US Treasury can devote its resources to the actual overseas money launderers. I feel we are being discriminated against and treated differently and unfairly with respect to other US citizens just because we happen to live abroad. Please consider removing this undue burden and threat of penalties for failing to report. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely, Robert Paulson