

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 05/01/2024 06:08 PM

Comments Received :

When human rights protections supposedly afforded by the Constitution are being revoked by a partisan Supreme Court, when the effort to "other" people and silence diverse voices is being led by members of Congress, then no, the government should keep its nose out of the business of sexual identity and orientation identifiers.