

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 05/02/2024 09:18 AMComments Received :

Regarding sexual orientation and gender identity. I would not be comfortable answering the question for a federal record. Will there be a prefer not to answer option? How granular will it be? For example I might answer a question "Do you identify as LGBTQ versus specific orientation questions. If I were trans I would definitely NOT trust giving that information in case the next administration would be Trump. I believe that information then could be used to persecute trans people.